Senate's Unanimous Vote To Outlaw Reds Presents Tough Problem to House

School Costs Estimated at Record High

$1,646,567 Believed Needed for 1955 Year; Increase of $95,519

The largest estimated school budget in Marion's history, $1,646,567.69, was approved Thursday night by the city board of education for the coming year.

The 1955 budget is $95,519.69 higher than last year's estimated appropriation of $1,551,048. A need for more teachers, due to increased enrollments, and higher operational costs caused the high estimate, the board said. Operational costs increased since more rooms are in use.

Deficit of $90,943

A deficit of $90,943 was estimated for the 1955 school year. City school business manager Paul Huffman said if additional money isn't received—perhaps through passage of a school levy in November—appropriations will have to be cut when the budget is refigured in January.

This is the highest estimated deficit in history, Huffman said. Last year's estimate showed a balance of $4,144.95.

Estimated receipts for 1955 are $1,555,624.69, which is $60,036.20 more than the board estimates it will receive from last year's budget. A total of $860,875 of 1955 receipts will come from local taxes while $694,749.69 will come from state and other sources.

Applications Discussed

Huffman said the $60,036.20 estimated increase is due to more income from the state from having more students and increased valuation of the city.

The board last night also discussed applications for the superintendent's job left vacant when L. L. Diekey resigned to take the superintendent's post at Hamilton. More than 40 men are interested in the position, the board said, and some contacts have been made.

No date has been set for interviewing the applicants, the board said. Processing of applications must be completed first.

Senate To Pay Attorney Fees For McCarthy

Arrangement Okayed By Both Republican, Democratic Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) won today in his appeal for the Senate to pay the salary of an attorney to represent him in an investigation of his official conduct.

Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), chairman of the special committee which will conduct hearings on a censure move aimed at McCarthy, announced the decision. He said McCarthy will be allowed to select the lawyer.

Leaders Approve

Watkins said the arrangement has the approval of Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader, and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind), chairman of the Senate Rules Committee.

The development came as members of the subcommittee which investigated McCarthy's bitter row with high Army officials said they hoped to release their report next Wednesday or Thursday.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD), who presided over those 36-day hearings, and Senators Jackson (D-Wash) and Dirksen (R-Ill), who are serving as a committee to draft a tentative report of findings, declined to give any hint of the "verdict."

But Mundt told reporters the subcommittee's seven members met behind closed doors yesterday, and "there were no important cleavages of opinion."

Meanwhile it was learned McCarthy has been gathering ammunition for a resumption of his investigations of the Army, as soon as he can get them started. Informants said this will be after the Mundt subcommittee reports and Watkins' six-man committee gets through with its hearings, due to start Aug. 30.

Look for Precedent

McCarthy had announced he was asking the legislative reference service to survey precedents for his appeal to the Watkins committee to provide him with counsel.

Watkins said the house often provides counsel for a member involved in an election contest, and that he believes there is some Senate precedent in contests

Both Friends, Foes of A-Bill Claim Victory

Showdown Vote Due Today in Senate on Complex Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate friends and foes of the Eisenhower atomic energy bill squared off for a showdown vote today with each side predicting victory by a tight margin.

The vote, which may help decide how soon Congress adjourns, was scheduled for early afternoon on the long-debated measure to allow private industry to produce power from atomic energy and authorize some exchange of atomic secrets with America's allies.

Opponents centered fire on a provision in the compromise bill permitting exclusive patent rights for private companies in the atomic energy field.

Sen. Monroney (D-Okla), one of a group fighting for a period of compulsory patent-sharing, said "I think we have enough votes to win."

"It will be a very close vote," he added, "and may depend on how many senators are present."

Senate Republican leader Knowland of California said he expected to pass the bill by a "reasonably close vote."

The complex measure, which calls for basic changes in the original 1946 atomic energy law, brought on prolonged debate before the Senate first passed it last month. The version before the Senate today is the result of compromise with a somewhat different bill approved by the House.

Since the House has passed the compromise, a Senate vote in favor would send it to the White House for President Eisenhower's signature. If the Senate votes against, the bill may go back for another try at compromise and conceivably a deadlock.

Fundamental Differences

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said today's test "will be on fundamental party differences between the Republican stand of maximum free enterprize and our position of providing for some government control and a yardstick with which to measure the atomic industry."

The revised bill provides for exclusive 17-year patents, renewable for the same period, on atomic energy developments not conceived or made under government auspices. It requires the Atomic En-

Legislators Ignore Advice Of Executive

Administration Fears Ban Would Drive Party Underground

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unanimous Senate passage of a bill to outlaw the Communist party confronted GOP House leaders today with the politically tricky question of what to do with it in the face of administration opposition.

The Senate's action, taken at a session yesterday that had many a head spinning, gave an ironic twist to the administration's efforts to drive some anti-Communist measures through Congress in the closing days of the session.

Bad Opposed Idea

With time running out for many of the proposals urged by Atty. Gen. Brownell, the Senate unexpectedly whipped through something he not only hadn't asked for but had consistently opposed.

Democratic senators, led by Sen. Humphrey of Minnesota, came up with an anti-Communist measure that proved to have an irresistable appeal to lawmakers in this election year.

Sen. Cooper (R-Ky) told his colleagues just before the vote what every other senator knew — that there were "political implications in this atmosphere."

The Senate started off its topsy-turvy day with a bill by Sen. Butler (R-Md) aimed at wiping out Communist-dominated labor unions and wound up by tacking it on in modified form, on to Humphrey's bill as an amendment. Humphrey had succeeded in substituting his bill for Butler's.

The result was a combination measure that would outlaw the Communist party and also would strip Communist-dominated labor unions of the right to be certified as bargaining agents by the National Labor Relations Board.

It passed 85-0, leaving the next move up to the House.

Companion Bill

A dozen House members have been pushing bills of their own aimed at outlawing the party.

Rep. Harrison A. Williams, Jr. (D-NJ) promptly announced he would introduce a companion to the Humphrey bill Monday. He said in a statement the Senate bill "is a tremendous stride forward in the fight against the international conspiracy of communism."

Butler's bill aimed at Communist-infiltrated unions had administration backing, although it was not exactly what Brownell had asked. It also had strong opposition from senators who contended it was an ill-drawn measure that could be used to destroy legitimate labor unions.

It survived a first test when the Senate rejected, 57-31, a proposal to sidetrack it in favor of creating a commission to study the problem of communism in labor unions and to report back next year.

Then Humphrey, a strong opponent of the Butler bill, offered as a substitute a measure to outlaw the Communist party.

No hearings had been held on it. There had been no formal discussions of it.

Bank Robbers Get $160,000; Suspect Held

CAMP SPRINGS, Md. (AP)—Three bandits robbed the Andrews Air Force Base branch bank of $160,000 today, and police said a man they had arrested on a speeding charge was now considered a suspect.

The gunmen who "cleaned out" the vault of the bank were Negroes. Detective Sgt. Charles L. Perrygo arrested three Negro men after an 80-mile-per-hour chase shortly after the bank was robbed.

Perrygo didn't know when he made his Friday the 13th arrest that the bank had been robbed.

He said the driver offered him a $20 bribe, saying he was "in a hurry."

Perrygo took all three to the Prince Georges County police station, but the other two men fled when the driver was taken inside for booking on the speeding charge.

Andrews Field is just southeast of Washington, about ten miles from the Capitol.

A stunned official of the parent First National Bank of Southern Maryland said there was about $160,000 in the vault, and "they (the bandits) cleaned it out."

There was no shooting, but an officer from the air base said an unidentified airman was "roughed up." He was not classed as injured.

The bandits, all Negroes, entered the bank just a little after the bank opened at 9 a.m. (EDT).

They quickly herded the four employes, two of them women, into

Second Rubber Concern Struck By CIO Union

25,500 Leave Work At Firestone Plants; Goodyear Already Out

CLEVELAND (AP) — The rubber industry's second major strike erupted across the nation today as 25,500 CIO United Rubber Workers walked off their jobs at Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. plants in eight cities.

Union officials, who called a strike of 23,000 Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. workers last July 7, triggered the action against Firestone to coincide with their contract's midnight deadline.

Over 48,000

Together the two actions put more than 48,000 rubber workers — a third of the industry's union members — on strike.

Talks between company and union negotiators continued until almost the last minute.

This morning hotel room conferences were resumed in the Firestone strike.

The negotiators for the union and Goodyear also resumed their meetings in another Cleveland hotel. Except for weekend recesses, these sessions have been conducted steadily since the Goodyear walkout began.

No Comment

In the rubber industry it is customary for both sides in a dispute to refrain from public comment until negotiations have broken off or an agreement has been reached.

A union spokesman said Firestone failed to agree with the rubber workers "on anything even approaching favorable provisions for a new contract."

Company officials issued a statement which declared:

"There is nothing to be gained by this action and everyone concerned will suffer a serious loss."

The union posted pickets around most entrances to Firestone plants.

Judge Orders Court To Hear Sheppard Case

Disqualifies Acting Mayor of Village on Prejudice Complaint

CLEVELAND (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Merrick today upheld a defense contention that Acting Mayor Gershom M. Barber of Bay Village should not conduct the preliminary hearing in the Sheppard murder case.

He granted an affidavit of prejudice against Barber and asked Common Pleas Judge William K. Thomas of Cleveland to hold the hearing. It was set for 9:15 a. m. Monday.

The hearing is on a first degree murder charge against Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard in the July 4 slaying of his wife, Marilyn, 31.

Judge Merrick said Barber "appeared to this court to be a fine, upstanding citizen who might try to do his very best at arriving at a just decision."

He added, however, that "this court is of the opinion that he had expressed himself on several occasions to the indication that he had a predisposition of thoughts and opinions in the case. The court feels that such a state of mind disqualifies him to sit further on this matter."

The preliminary hearing will determine whether "probable cause" exists to hold Sheppard for grand jury action.

Barons To Suspend Operation for Year

The Marion Barons hockey team has received a one-year suspension from operations in the International Hockey League, the Marion Sports Enterprises, Inc., announced today.

The suspension was made at the request of the club. League secretary-treasurer, Frank Gallagher, granted the request Thursday night with the understanding that the team, which finished second last season, has the right to rejoin the loop in the 1955-56 season.

SEVERAL EXHIBITION hockey games will be scheduled at the Veterans' Memorial Coliseum, home ice for the Barons, in order to keep the sport before the public eye, according to Pete Hendy, executive secretary of Sports Enterprises.

Hendy explained the withdrawal of the Barons by saying that although over $100,000 had been realized after taxes from hockey, public ice skating, and ice shows, hockey had accounted for only one half the amount, and its high operational costs had caused a loss in the total revenue.

He said in order to bring a championship team to Marion in its first year, the Barons had gone $20,000 over the league limit on salaries during the year. Hendy said, "We went so far as to pay one player over $200 a week in a league where the average player received a little over $100."

HENDY ALSO CITED the cost of promotion in the area from Findlay to Newark as another major factor in the expenses of the club. He said that over 60 per cent of the fans at the hockey games were non-Marionites.

He called that an indication the sport will eventually pay for itself here. "We started too big last year for something which was completely foreign and required a lot of education in the area. We cannot afford to jeopardize the overall operation by taking a gam-

Board Appeals Court Reversal In Redistricting

The Marion County Board of Education this morning appealed a judgment of the Common Pleas Court which held that their redistricting action last December was invalid. The notice of appeal was filed with the Third District Court of Appeals.

Portions of Green Camp, Morral, and Marion Township local school districts were transferred to Meeker local school district by the board on Dec. 31. Lowell H. Guthery, of 451 Merchant Ave., William R. Tracewell of near Marion and the Marion Township local board of education challenged the transfers.

On July 29 a court judgment held the redistricting action was invalid. The Columbus law firm of Knepper, White, Richards, Miller and Roberts is representing the county school board.

War Scars Now Healed, But Japan's Coffers Bare

TOKYO (AP) — Nine years ago Japan surrendered. Today the dazed, defeated nation of 1945 has been spectacularly rebuilt and is tied economically and militarily to its former enemy, the United States.

While the scars of a devastating war have been almost entirely erased, the island empire is almost broke. The United States is gravely concerned. Relations with the United States are delicate.

Nine years ago this Sunday, Emperor Hirohito broadcast Japan's surrender in a quavering, high-pitched voice. Japan was shattered. The vast empire had collapsed like a soap bubble.

More than 40 of Japan's cities were wrecked, two by atomic bombs. Millions of Japanese in rags roamed in apathy in the ruins.

If the handful of U.S. soldiers who landed gingerly a few days later could have jumped the years and seen the Japan of 1954 they would have called it a miracle.

Japanese walking the streets or working on farms and in the fishing villages look well fed and healthy. Stores are crammed with attractive goods.

But the prosperous facade hides a deep economic illness inevitable in a nation shorn of its overseas conquests and forced to support a population half as large as that of the United States on four home islands whose total area is about that of California.

Japan must trade to live. It is

Studebaker Worker Glad Fellows Okayed Pay Cut

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Robert Milner thinks he can afford to put in the flower beds now.

Robert Milner is a Studebaker automotive worker.

He is one of the 5,300-odd employes who voted yesterday to accept a cut in his hourly wages. Along with more than 7,000 other workers he went to a high school football stadium in South Bend, heard the arguments on both sides, and then made his decision.

—:—

IT WAS A unique event in the history of labor relations in America's automobile industry.

People in South Bend like to point out that the first sit-down strike took place here more than 20 years ago. They say that the result yesterday also sets a precedent. Local 5 of the CIO United Auto Workers agreed by an overwhelming 8-1 vote to accept the wage reductions in order to put Studebaker in a better competitive position by lowering production costs.

THE COMPANY has reported a loss of nearly nine million dollars for the first six months of 1954. Its sales dropped from 349 million dollars in the first half of last year to 121 million this year.

Its wage scale, an executive said, was more than 30 cents an hour above the rest of the industry. Officials told the union the company could no longer pay such wages.

The pinch began to be felt some nine months ago. This is what it meant to Robert Milner.

Jury Convicts 9 Red Leaders

Striking Bavarians Clash With Police

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Clashes between police and striking Bavarian metal workers continued in Munich today—the fifth day of the walkout affecting 220,000 employes.

Other Bavarian centers reported peaceful picketing.

At the big Siemens Electrical Plant, 300 club-wielding police tangled with 1,000 pickets who vainly tried to prevent 5,000 nonstrikers from going on the job.

Company officials said the number of strikers was dwindling. Employers who had been claiming that 50 per cent of the workers were on the job, today said 85 per cent were back.

The union stuck to its claim that the majority were still out.

Optimistic View

Highway Chief Foresees Two Turnpikes by 1957

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Superhighways—650 miles of them—may span great stretches of Ohio by the end of 1957. They would include the 240-mile East-West turnpike now being built across northern Ohio and the 410-mile North-South toll road now being planned.

State Highway Director S. O. Linzell said his "optimistic" prediction is that both of the huge projects will be finished by late 1957. The East-West turnpike is scheduled for completion late next year.

Linzell spoke at a meeting yesterday with Toledo and Lucas County planners who met to discuss how the proposed Cincinnati-Conneaut Turnpike suits their local plans.

On the Cincinnati-Conneaut turnpike, Linzell said if everything goes well, work can start late in 1955 after the northern turnpike is completed.

Groups are meeting now with Linzell to discuss the proposed routes. Linzell said he wanted to avoid fights such as the 2½-year conflict at Elyria that held up construction of the East-West turnpike.

Yesterday's meeting was the eighth of nine scheduled.

The director said he expects to know by Sept. 4 whether to ask the State Controlling Board for more money for a detailed engineering study.

Representatives of Ashland and Richland counties meet today with Linzell and consulting engineers to discuss the route through their territory.

At yesterday's meeting, Arthur

Reason for Drive

Improved Care Forces Increase in Polio Costs

Improved treatment techniques, constant care and increased polio incidence have conspired to send polio costs soaring this year, Bert Freed, Marion County Emergency March of Dimes campaign director, said today.

"This ironic combination," Mr. Freed explained, "is one of the underlying reasons why Marion County and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has found it necessary to hold an emergency appeal for funds Aug. 16-31."

HE SAID SURVEYS by the National Foundation showed the following developments in 1954 — the 17th year of the organiztd fight against polio:

1. More lives are being saved today, but the cost of survival is greater. Only 4.8 per cent of all reported polio cases died in 1953, compared with a death rate of 11 per cent during the five-year period 1938-42. Thus last year about 390 people lived, who in earlier years would have died. But they required more extensive and expensive care and treatment as a result. The patient aid bill for 1953 was $29,734,000, largest in history. It may be even larger this year.

2. More polio patients need help today, so it costs more. There were 67,000 holdover patients from 1953 and earlier years still needing March of Dimes help this year. Incidence of polio for the first half of the year is one-third higher than the average for a similar period during the last five years. There may be 40,000 new cases this year, with hospital costs higher than in 1953. Treatment for polio patients in hospitals is one-third higher than the average of all hospital cases. The prospect is a possible $33,500,000 for patient aid.

3. Those how need help most, cost the most to help; the greatest need is for severe, long-term or respirator patients. Of $29,734,000 spent for patient care last year, more than $20,000,000 went for the care of long-term patients. There are 2,000 long-term patients now living in iron lungs; as many more new respirator cases may be expected this year. A long-term respirator patient can cost $20,000 in one year.

4. MORE OLD CASES go back to hospitals for new, improved treatment. In the first three months of this year, reports from 308 hospitals showed 1,706 old polio cases were readmitted to hospitals. Of these, 502 came back for orthopedic surgery; 552 returned for intensive rehabilitation service; 617 came back for improved convalescent care, 35 for other types of treatment.

5. Polio hits more older people today. Polio is no longer a "disease of children." The age of onset is going up, and the proportion of respirator patients increases with the age of patients. Last year, of all patients reported to the National Foundation, 22 per cent were age 20 or over.

"FACING THESE facts," Mr. Freed concluded, "it is obviously impossible to cut back financially in the field of patient care. That's why the Emergency March of Dimes during Aug. 16-31 must succeed. The thousands who are seriously disabled and now depend upon their fellow Americans' generosity constitute a public trust that must be fulfilled."

Mr. Freed urged the people of Marion County to help make the Emergency March of Dimes a success. "Donations will be easier than ever to make," he explained. He listed the most convenient ways to give as follows:

Simply return the reply envelope you receive at your home. Place your check or cash in the envelope, and drop it in any mailbox. If coins are enclosed, they should be attached to the inside of the envelope.

Coin boxes will be placed in stores throughout Marion. They will be the familiar "iron lung" can for donations.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES, such as the window-washing drive put on by the Exchange Club at both local drive-in theaters, are simply voluntary. The members of the club are taking time from their normal vacation period to help raise funds for the March of Dimes.

Other special March of Dimes activities during the 15-day Emergency Drive will include the sale of balloons in downtown Marion; sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce; a polio contributions board sponsored by the Ritz Grill; the Celebrity Dump on Aug. 23, sponsored by the Y-Mens Club; and 12 polio collection pick-up trucks cruising Marion County, sponsored by the Lions Club.

NEW BULWARK AGAINST UNDERSIDE OF COMMUNISM. Balkan offense agreement among Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey adds this new lineup (in black) against the underside of Communism. NATO put its okay on the pact, signed in Bled, Yugoslavia. In effect, the agreement calls for concerned action by all three nations in event one is attacked. They have a combined 45,000,000 population and 3,000,000 troops to back up the pact.

State and Federal Funds In Year Total $2,457,014

Marion County received $2,457,014 in state and federal funds distributed by the state auditor's office during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1953, out of a state total of $346,008,853.

In the county, $2,025,016 came from state funds, while the remainder, $431,998 came from federal funds. These figures are listed in the annual report being prepared by State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

THE MONEY was distributed among four main divisions, for local governments, for public welfare, for educational purposes, and for miscellaneous purposes.

Local governments in Marion County received $796,747 from state funds, and $1,300 from federal funds for health; $383,635 from state funds and $398,814 from federal funds, for public welfare, $785,973 from state funds and $31,883 from federal funds, for educational purposes; and $58,660 from state funds, for miscellaneous purposes.

Eight Accused In Bombing Get Stiff Sentences

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Eight men accused of bombings during last fall's North American Aviation Co. strike here, were sentenced today to Ohio Penitentiary.

Sentences ranging from a minimum of 4 to a maximum of 41 years were imposed by Judge Joseph M. Clifford on each of these defendants:

Robert K. Weed, 31; Elmo Bothman, 31; Robert L. Stuller, 32; Raymond Hoskinson, 36 and Robert White 27, all of Columbus; Bernard Angus, 45, of Rt. 1, Reynoldsburg; Henry Woltz, 23, and Daniel L. Mason, 31, both of Lancaster.

The men were arrested during the UAW—CIO strike at the plant and were accused of placing home-made dynamite bombs against cars, homes and buildings.

Defense Atty. Brooke Alloway had pleaded for probation.

Judge Clifford said "after careful study of this whole matter, I find that the majesty of the law as well as my own conscience dictates that each of you shall receive the following sentence."

He then sentenced the men to the penitentiary on four counts each involving the unlawful possession and use of explosives. The sentences are to run concurrently and none of the men will be eligible for parole until three years are served.

They also were ordered to pay cost of prosecution.

Judge Clifford told the men he had "sympathy with their families" and that he appreciated the fact that since their arrest they have tried to "rectify the mistake."

"However," the judge said, "these good points are far overshadowed by the evil that was done and the terrible consequence it might have had."

Ex-Liquor Agent Reports Threat on Racket Testimony

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A former state liquor agent whose tape recording touched off the current investigation of alleged shakedown of permit holders, says someone is trying to silence him.

That's what William L. Morrison, told Prosecutor Frank H. Kearns today. He turned over to the prosecutor a threatening letter he said he received Thursday.

Morrison said he found the note in his mailbox here. He said the pencilled note read: "Morrison: If you want to keep on living, don't go to no more grand jury meeting."

The Franklin County Grand Jury is investigating alleged shakedown reports along with Columbus area gambling.

Morrison spent a number of hours in the jury room Wednesday. The jury heard tape recordings which he had submitted to Kearns. He said they contained evidence of payoffs in Franklin County, linking three local permit holders, a former state investigator and a second investigator still with the department, to the alleged shakedown racket.

Kearns said Morrison will be asked to appear before the jury again, probably next week. He said the letter to Morrison would be turned over to postal authorities.

Vacuum Used in Helping Refrigerator's Operation

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — (UP) —A home management specialist says your vacuum cleaner can help your refrigerator work better.

Miss Catherine M. Sullivan of the University of Illinois explains that the vacuum cleaner can be used to clean off the refrigerator's condenser and improve its performance.

A refrigerator has to run longer to keep the box cool if its condenser is covered with dirt and lint. If the weather is extremely hot, the refrigerator may run constantly and still not do the job.

JOLIET, Ill. (AP)—His bid for freedom cut short by court action, Roger (The Terrible) Touhy was back at Stateville Prison today, still insisting he was framed in the kidnaping of John (Jake The Barber) Factor.

But Factor says he is willing to testify again against Touhy, who has served more than 20 years of a 99-year-sentence for kidnaping Factor in 1933.

Touhy, 56-year-old Chicago gang leader in the prohibition era, was brought back to Stateville from Chicago yesterday after two days of liberty. The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ordered his return to prison pending outcome of the state's appeal of a federal judge's decision releasing him.

Federal Judge John P. Barnes on Monday ordered Touhy's release, ruling that the kidnaping of Factor was a hoax and Touhy was convicted on perjured testimony. Touhy also is serving 199 years for his part in a 1942 prison break at Stateville but Judge Barnes ruled he was convicted on the escape charge under a statute which he said is unconstitutional.

5 Felons Flee State Prison in Massachusetts

NORFOLK, Mass. (AP) — Five dangerous convicts who broke out of the state prison colony last night after overpowering six guards and taking one of them as hostage successfully eluded a manhunt today.

Police departments in key New England cities were warned by Massachusetts state police that at least one escapee has a gun and that all five are dangerous.

This was the second break for four of the men in the last three months.

The convicts were said to have taken as hostage prison guard Walter F. De Adder, 29, of Lawrence.

The men were identified as:

James L. Schwarm, 37, of Malden, serving 6 to 8 years for robbery.

William J. Couture, 40, of Taunton, serving 4 to 17 years for the 1942 holdup shooting of a Boston storekeeper.

Martin F. Feeney, 38, of Boston, serving 12 to 15 years for a 1949 Belmont bank robbery that netted $5,710.

Richard Lavoie, 40, of Woonsocket, R. I., serving 6 to 10 years for breaking and entering and larceny.

Russell T. Halliday, 26, of Cambridge, serving 12 to 15 years for shooting a policeman during a drug store holdup in Watertown.

Honeymoon Spree Financed by Funds Stolen From Dad

NEW YORK (AP) — A teen-age couple who went on a honeymoon spree with $5,800 stolen from the bride's father have been charged with grand larceny — although the father says he's willing to forgive and forget.

Harvey J. Wurtzberger and the former Deborah Ann Fine, both 16 and of the Bronx, eloped Aug. 3 and were picked up three days later in Washington, D.C.

Admittedly financed by money taken from the safe of Deborah's father, movie theater manager David Fine, the couple bought a new $4,000 convertible, ran up a $208 hotel bill, and lavished considerable sums on night-clubbing and exorbitant tips.

Deborah's father refused to sign a complaint but the district attorney's office stepped into the case and arrested the young couple yesterday.

Man Enters Guilty Plea To Obscene Film Charge

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Fletcher E. Cryder of Piedmont pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of possessing obscene films.

Common Pleas Judge D. Dean McLaughlin deferred sentence after Prosecutor John Rossetti said Cryder had co-operated by testifying before a grand jury.

One of five men arrested in connection with a lewd film ring, Cryder faces maximum punishment of $2,000 fine or seven years in prison. The other four indicted on charges of manufacturing obscene films, will be arraigned tomorrow.

Overdue Honor

By George Sokolsky

When I read President Eisenhower's really stirring defense of Gen George Marshall I could not help wondering whether he gave a thought to his old chief Gen Douglas MacArthur under whom he served for about nine years as secretary of the General Staff, when MacArthur was chief of staff and later in the Philippines

SOKOLSKY

MacArthur too has served his country 52 years and has been acclaimed as the greatest general we have produced since Robert E Lee No matter whether one agrees with his views it is impossible to question his stature

Gen MacArthur since his summary dismissal by President Truman and Secretary of Defense George Marshall has become a businessman selling electric razors typewriters and carbon paper Perhaps he is less beset by gnawing politics in his present lucrative position but to many Americans the wonder is that our government can afford to waste such a great talent particularly as Asia remains our most pressing problem

MACARTHUR WAS dismissed for being right as we now know at a time when his views were politically embarrassing to the administration in Washington He was humiliated

Is there to be no correction of the record or are we to wait until MacArthur dies when even those who today scorn him will find it in their hearts to speak and write panegyrics in his honor?

What a cortege of distinguished figures will follow him then! Need we wait for that? Does it not make more sense to pay him the honor that is due him now while he is alive and while he can accept the gratitude of the Republic his son standing by to recall all his life that this country has the emotional maturity to rectify a mistake?

It has been suggested that he be given the title General of the Armies It is an honorary title only borne by Gen John J Pershing given to him by a resolution introduced in both houses of Congress on July 19 1919, and adopted September 4 1919

General of the Armies is not a new title in our history The rank was first created by Congress on March 3 1799 No one was appointed to it and it ceased to exist in 1802 until it was revived in 1919 for Gen Pershing

THE RANK of General of the Army was created in 1866 and was held by Generals Grant Sherman and Sheridan It lapsed in 1891 but was revived in World War II as a temporary rank until March 3 1946 when it was made permanent applying also to the Navy in the form of Fleet Admiral

This permanent rank 'General of the Army has been granted to Generals Bradley Marshall Arnold and Eisenhower

The rank of 'Fleet Admiral' has been granted to Admirals Nimitz Leahy Halsey and King It was not held by Gen MacArthur who was in command of our forces in Asia

A curiosity of the act creating the rank General of the Armies is the last line of the act reading

Provided That no more than one appointment to office shall be made under the terms of this act

In other words the act could only be made to apply to General Pershing and to no one else It cannot be made to apply to Gen MacArthur unless new legislation is passed

IT WOULD SEEM that that ought not to be difficult considering Gen MacArthur's enormous services to his country Of course there will always be small envious men without sentiment for the monumental characters of this country some of them whose roots are still in the European countries in which they were born although they have long been naturalized Americans who despise MacArthur for his intensive nationalism his singleness of purpose in upholding the prestige of his country

Such persons are bound to oppose any honors for Gen Douglas MacArthur but they will be few and Americans can afford to ignore them and their small hatreds

The time has come to remind the old general that the gratitude of the American people does not fade away

He has served his country valiantly and as he approaches his 75th birthday which will come on January 26 it would be appropriate for the nation to give him this clearance of the record as a birthday present What could be more gracious?

October Brew

By Victor Riesel

ROME

The Communist International has ordered its Italian labor chiefs to measure Italy for a series of revolutionary strikes and riotous street demonstrations

RIESEL

Evidence shown to me reveals that these outbursts will coincide with the time table set for similar street turbulence in France — the kind of rioting which the pro Mendes France police chiefs never would have tolerated

Deadline for action in both nations according to current Comintern strategy is October

Objective of the methodical terror, the assaults on USE buildings and the street tumult will be to turn all Europe against the US — and to demand that the Communist party be permitted to help govern Italy and France

The base for demonstrations in both nations will be the giant Communist controlled labor federations The Italian section has 5,000,000 members compared to the 1,000,000 main anti Communist organization of workers

THE COMMUNISTS will play rough They've thrown their entire underground military and espionage apparatus into high gear Everything from brass knuckles to special internal espionage cells is being polished If the Comintern doesn't call off or ease this demonstration blood will stain many of Rome's cobbled streets

If this seems inconceivable to the American mind remember that this mob has over 200 members in Parliament and that one out of every three voters is a Commie or one of their left wing Socialist allies

When I was told of the coming rehearsal for revolution in Italy I asked for evidence and got it swiftly enough

Documents authenticated by intelligence services and police who are almost helpless in their efforts to caulk up leaks in their departments reveal that the Communist party espionage cells actually have sent out a secret memo asking their worker spies to steal as swiftly as possible the police and military plans being made to head off the riots

The party needs this information because it plans to use the CGIL (Communist national labor federation) flying squads and standby mass picket lines to promote large street manifestations These will be held in areas away from the factories

SO THE TOP tovarischi have secretly asked their cells to filch the following information out of police and Army files

1 What are the sizes and fire power strength of the army and police forces now in the stations and camps

2 What is the strength of the police and Army reserves which the Government can move in to bolster these police stations and military depots during public disorders

3 What central command posts and reserve stations will police stations and Army officers under siege call for reinforcements?

4 What special routes will these reserve troops and police squads use to reach each beleaguered camp or station demanding help?

5 What river bridges and other important roads crossroads and buildings (works — is the word the Communist order used) — are on the routes to be taken by the police and military reinforcements to each trouble area

6 Can road blocks be constructed rapidly?

It was explained to me that this query by the underground Communist military labor chiefs was aimed at discovering if there bricks or other construction material lying around which can be grabbed instantly or whether the party needs to bring in and cache its own road block materiel

7 How extensive and well equipped are the reserve police and army battalions How swiftly can they get to certain key piazzas (squares) and districts in the city?

8 What methods of communication will the police barracks and the army forces use to keep contact during the upheaval?

AS SOON AS this information is siphoned from the various ministries by the Communist labor agents planted in these government bureaus the Communist party tactics will be decided

These decisions are generally made by a wealthy high living trio — Togliatti Longo and Secchia Once the decision is reached the orders will be flashed out of party headquarters on the grim little Street of Obscure Shops (Via delle Botteghe Oscure) to the CGIL labor headquarters all over Italy

Flying squad specialists will be dispatched to the smaller towns— and the professionals already in the big cities will be given orders on just how far to go whom to assault how many men to throw into the riots and how long to keep it up

How are we going to beat this kind of operation with some movies a few information libraries and velvet gloved good will?

We can't

How About Purdah?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Speaking of fashions why don't American women go into Purdah

The term purdah in Moslem countries means a curtain screen or cloak that hides women from public observation

HAL BOYLE

Isn't it about time that we adopted this fine old common sense Mohammedan tradition under which no woman appears on the street except wearing a kind of bedsheet that covers her completely except for two holes for her eyes?

Personally I believe it would be a fine thing at least for a year or two It would give both men and women a rest from the nervous wear and tear of changing feminine styles

It's getting lately so that we have more crises in the world of fashion than we do in international diplomacy The length of women's dresses has changed so often a girl doesn't know whether to put on a skirt or a window blind And women's hair dos have achieved a final imbecility in the idiot look —which makes a gal appear as if her hair had been gnawed off by a nearsighted rodent

THIS YEAR Christian Dior has raised a new clamor with his decision that big girls are only little boys at heart after all and therefore should have a boyish silhouette

A great swap went up that this would mean a de emphasis of the bosom Line as if this spelled tragedy But is there anything in America actually more needed today than a de emphasis of the feminine bosom?

Since the sweater girls bloomed out a decade or so ago there has grown up a cult of the bosom in this country that is as ridiculous as it is unhealthy The bosom is getting to be regarded as a typical American product—like baseball the hot dog and the ice cream cone and Mom's blueberry pie So much interest has been focused on the feminine bosom that soon the Russians will claim they invented it

A man never was too sure of what he was getting when he married but today he is doubly uncertain Is the girl of his dreams really the girl of his dreams—or the dreams of half a dozen fashion designers Is she real or is she a padded dummy held together by hidden wires and bone stays and so covered with cosmetic goo her real face remains her own secret?

What do American women really look like anymore? Has anybody actually seen one in years? Why the change so much that when a husband comes home from work he doesn't know whether to greet the woman who opens the door with a hello Dear or who are you? He can't kiss her for how can he be sure at a glance that it is his wife?

WOULDN'T IT BE better all around if American women took a unanimous vacation from all this fashion nonsense and went into purdah Peeking out at life through two holes in a big bedsheet any woman could feel mysterious and glamorous She no longer would have to worry about gadgets lipstick chawed off hangnails thick ankles bosom lines or pipestem legs All that would be visible would be her eyes But the eyes are the mirrors of the soul and it is high time American women learned again that their eyes can be more eloquent and truly feminine than the straitjackets of a Paris designer

Certainly any girl would be more attractive in a walking bedsheet—even if it made her look like a member of the ladies auxiliary of the Ku Klux Klan—than she does in the get ups she wears in the name of fashion today against the seating of an elected senator

The Senate Wednesday voted Watkins committee a $10,000 fund to finance its inquiry, and Watkins said the committee was in agreement that part of the money should be spent to hire a lawyer to be named by McCarthy

McCarthy is expected to select Edward Bennett Williams a Washington lawyer who has sometimes been his counsel in the past

Watkins expressed doubt that the committee would be interested in a published report that McCarthy may soon be billed for additional federal income taxes The Internal Revenue Service declined comment on the report published yesterday by the Washington Evening Star

McCarthy denounced as 'libelous' the Star s story that the Internal Revenue Service was getting ready to bill him for about $25 000 of income taxes and interest for the years 1946 through 1952

McCarthy said no one in the Revenue Service has indicated he owes 'one cent more taxes than he had declared On the contrary he said 'there is the indication that they owe me a rebate for what I was overcharged by the old Truman administration'

HPM Press Forces New Structure at Texas Plant

The giant 5 000 ton aircraft press shown here was designed and built by The Hydraulic Press Manufacturing Co of Mount Gilead and erected at the Temco Aircraft Corp branch plant at Garland Texas

Because of the size of the press the Temco Aircraft Corp of Dallas Texas first erected it outdoors and then constructed the two story building around it Erecting the press was a big job from setting forms for the foundation of the press to turning out aircraft parts on the press in its new home

A special derrick was built to hoist the multi ton crown of the press into the air Crews hand-cranked it skyward The derrick and crown were skidded into position and then the crown was lowered over the steam rods The press was wrapped in a large canvas covering for protection from the weather while the building was being built around it

Equally dramatic is the story of Temco itself In just nine years the company has weathered some tough financial going to rise to its present position

Shortly after its founding a large contract almost led to disaster because the contracting company went bankrupt But the new firm undertook manufacture of truck bodies venetian blind clips and other items that in a year s time put Temco s economy in the black again

Employment at Temco s three plants is about 7 000 and the firm now is performing three important roles in the aircraft industry In one overhaul and conversion Temco has processed more than 2 000 aircraft and currently is working on six military contracts Another Temco role is sub-contract production of assemblies for military aircraft Temco today is manufacturing major components for seven first line Air Force and Navy aircrafts including the Boeing B 52 Stratofortress and the Republic F 84-F jet fighter bomber

Temco also is designing and developing military weapons of its own Both missiles and advanced piloted aircraft are subjects of Temco engineering studies

Hendy said if the local promoters see the league means business and attendance for exhibition games here this winter is satisfactory the Barons will reactivate the franchise next year

A firm denial was also given to rumors that the Barons would move the franchise to Columbus Hendy said the franchise was granted by the league to the city of Marion If Columbus were to join the league the local group would not be operators of the franchise

Hendy said that if Columbus should obtain a franchise next year the natural Columbus-Marion Cincinnati rivalry would be one more reason for the local club to get back into the league

With the withdrawal of Marion the International League will operate next season as a six team circuit composed of Toledo Grand Rapids Troy Cincinnati Fort Wayne and Johnstown

GALLAGHER SAID the league this season will play a 30-game schedule regardless of the number of teams participating

Frank Foster president of Sports Enterprises said this morning the group has not had a chance to get itself set but should have more information on future operations in about a week He said there will definitely be a continuation of public ice skating and other ice shows at the local Coliseum

He called the action Thursday a surprise to him and said it would be about a week before the local organization could meet to work out a schedule for the coming winter

The Cleveland Barons parent club of the local group was behind the move to withdraw the Marion club from operation The local team was the only link in the Cleveland farm chain which operated at a loss last season All other farm teams of Cleveland made money

Fulfillment Corp. Given Pillsbury Mail Contract

Fulfillment Corp of America announced today the firm has been awarded a contract by Pillsbury Mills Inc to process what is said to be the world's largest mailing ever undertaken by a private mailer

Twelve varieties of coupons redeemable for Pillsbury products such is cake mix flour pancake mix and cookie mix will be enclosed in 29 million envelopes and mailed from Marion Postoffice

THEY WILL be sent to virtually every householder in the nation Fulfillment officials said

Fourteen boxcars of paper will be required to print the coupons—part of which will be printed by Fulfillment Corp, although most will be printed in Minneapolis and shipped to Marion

The 12 boxcars of envelopes which will be required are already rolling into Marion and coupons will begin to arrive next week

In preparation for the mailing the local company has completed major moves in the location of departments moving most operations into the buildings at 381 W Center St in order to make the entire building at 280 N Main St available for storage of materials and filled mail sacks awaiting the October mailing dates

THE WORK of stuffing the envelopes and preparing them for mailing will begin August 23 and continue on a three shift basis until the middle of October In order to meet these schedules FCA has tripled the staff of its mailing department and purchased several new high speed automatic stuffing machines

This mailing will add almost 50 per cent to the postal revenues of the Marion Postoffice without a single envelope going through the Postoffice building itself since all mail will be trucked directly from FCA's premises to the mail trains

Local postal authorities said the operation would add about $400 000 to the revenue of the local Postoffice They said Postoffice employes would truck the mail from the Fulfillment building to the points of departure either train or truck routes

In the prejudice hearing Bay Village councilman George J Seib testified Barber told him on July 21 that the case could be solved in a matter of hours if Sheppard were arrested, jailed and subjected to interrogation'

Another defense witness Robert L Swanker former Bay Village service director testified that about a week ago Barber said 'the door is closing fast against Sheppard" Swanker said he was not sure whether Barber had used the word guilty' and added that Barber said he would change his opinion if evidence pointed to Sheppard s innocence

On cross examination by Corrigan, Barber said he talked about the case with fellow employes at Joseph and Feiss Co but denied saying anything definite about Sheppard's status

An investigation in the case preceded Police Chief Frank W Story indicated that Dr Stephen Sheppard brother of the defendant had given him information involving someone who had not previously been questioned by police

Story said he intended to question the person but declined to elaborate

Story also said he obtained a signed statement from Dr Lester T Hoversten house guest of the Sheppards until the night before the murder

The police chief said Dr Hoversten s statement materially strengthened' the case being prepared against Sheppard spending twice as much as it earns Substantial aid probably must come from the United States to see Japan through the next few years

Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida s pro American administration has adopted a tight austerity program to force Japan to live within its income This austerity has caused business firms — most of them fly by night — to collapse right and left

A heavy strain on U S Japan relations this year was the accidental dusting of 23 fishermen in the U S hydrogen bomb tests in the central Pacific in March

The incident boiled to mammoth proportions Japan the only nation ever to be atom bombed is touchy about the big bombs Slow U S apologies and a statement by a congressman that the fishermen might have been 'spying' on the tests did not help matters

THE COMMUNISTS have missed none of this and have combined attacks on Yoshida with propaganda designed to woo Japan However the outpouring of sweetness upon Peiping and Moscow has had little visible effect as yet

Despite all the stresses the United States s Japan s best customer Its Army Navy and Air Force remains under a treaty agreement to defend the home islands The United States spends important money here

Third Damage Claim Filed in Fatal Accident

A third suit was filed Thursday in common Pleas Court against James S Gallina 17 and Jeanne Carr of 901 Vers St All three suits are a result of a fatal automobile accident Nov 10 1953 on State Route 739 near Cecil Camp

The third suit was filed for Marie Gerard a minor by her father Harold E Gerard 1 570 Clinton St and asks $10 000 damages She was one of three passengers in the automobile driven by Miss Gallina

The first action was filed June 21 by Ralph L Snyder of 365 Girard Ave administrator of the estate of his daughter Joyce Anne who was fatally injured in the crash It asks $25 000 damages

The second suit was filed by Ernest W Newell of 845 Linaphe Ave and asks $10 000 damages on behalf of his daughter Esther another passenger in the car

The four girls were returning to Marion from Richwood to report a Business Industry Education Day tour of Marion industries when the accident occurred

Glenn claims his daughter sustained a severe injury to her back fractures of several ribs multiple cuts and bruises severe internal injuries and severe shock to her nervous system

The law firm of Donithen Michel and Davis is representing all three plaintiffs

Studebaker

He is 28 married with two small children—a son Wayne 5 and a daughter Pam 16 months When he got out of the Navy in 1946 he went to work in the Studebaker plant

At his peak as a metal finisher his take home pay was $350 a month

A year later he married the girl he has known since his high school days

They built a handsome five room house and bought a new car every year It was a Studebaker They also bought a TV set an expensive refrigerator and good furnishings for their home

Robert Milner went in debt but he didn t mind There were no clouds that he couldn t brush away with his own hands

THEN THE CHANGE came These things happened

1 The automobile market changed to a buyer's market' People began shopping for bargains

2 A fierce claw and fang sales war opened between Studebaker's principal competitors The company was caught in the middle

3 Defense contracts leveled off so that government millions no longer offset operational costs The cost plus' contracts began to disappear

Almost over night Robert Milner found himself working in average of eight days a month His take home pay dropped to $120 a month Even with $27 a week in unemployment compensation, he began going into debt

The payments on the mortgage on his home plus the monthly bills for groceries takes up his total earned income and his unemployment compensation He sold his car and bought an 8 year old car so that he can get to work He said that neither he nor his wife have bough any clothes in more than a year They never go out of the house at night

MILNER SAID however he has not considered leaving the company

I never thought things would go as bad as they did so quickly But I like the work there and I like the people and I like the product

The new wage scale for which he voted will mean a potential loss of $14 40 a week in his earnings

But if I get steady work a they say we will I m going to be ahead in the long run he said I ll be tickled to pieces with a steady 40 hours a week even if I don t get so much per hour

The final official count of the vote was 5 371 to 626 in favor of accepting the wage reduction estimate to average 14 per cent of the payroll

The vote by secret ballot reversed last week s election when the workers rejected the pay cut proposal Last week s vote by a show of hands was termed very close

Two days later the company notified the union it would end its contract in 60 days and indicated the plant would close However union officials in long negotiations with the company worked out the pay cut plan

Cline told the group steel truckers might not use the Northern Ohio Turnpike because rates are too high Cline is chairman of the Toledo Lucas County Planning Commissions

He said he attended a recent meeting of Toledo area truckers when turnpike tolls were discussed

He quoted Jesse Smith of Toledo treasurer of the Ohio Trucking Assn as saying truckers hauling steel from Pittsburgh mills to Detroit auto factories would shun the Northern Ohio Turnpike because of high tolls

Recommended tolls of the Ohio Turnpike Commission now stand at 6 63 cents per mile for trucks up to 62 000 pounds and 8 7 cents per mile for trucks up to 78 000 pounds

The rate along the Pennsylvania Turnpike is four cents a mile

At today s meeting the mayor of Ashland Paul Chorpenning pointed out his city next year wants to extend its boundaries 1 mile in each direction and hopes the proposed route does not interfere with those plans

Passes Near City

As routed now the turnpike would come within one mile of the city limits and forty two to three miles from the center of town

Chorpenning told Linzell what his thinking was about turnpikes running through cities Linzell replied

I ll stick my neck out But my general conception of turnpikes is that you come near cities but not run through them

Chorpenning said We don t want the turnpike within our city limits When Linzell asked him how definite were the plans to enlarge he only answered

They probably are indefinite as your turnpike location

Representatives from Ashland and Richland counties met with Linzell and the turnpike planner today In general they expressed approval of the tentative route and interchanges

Said Joseph F McClure of the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce 'It looks like a well conceived plan And Don Sprong an Ashland County commissioner said We re pretty well satisfied with it You re coming in close to us but you re getting away from the residential section

R F Pistor a partner of the engineering firm of Coverdale & Colpitts said final location of turnpike traffic interchanges will depend upon further traffic studies

He said U S 42 is one of the main routes between Columbus and Cleveland having much through traffic that runs through Mansfield Perhaps half of that traffic will use the turnpike easing bottlenecks on Mansfield streets, Passaro said

Asked if the turnpike would eliminate the need for the U S 42 bypass around Mansfield the highway director said he could not tell until additional studies are made to determine whether enough people would use U S 42 to justify the bypass He added that the U S 42 bypass around Ashland will not be affected because it now is under contract

After today s meeting George F Thomeyer turnpike liaison engineer of the state highways department and turnpike consulting engineers went to Wright Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton for an afternoon session with Air Force officials

The turnpike planners said under consideration is a plan for turnpike interchange near Wright-Patterson

About 1 900 persons are employed at the Des Moines plant where a union spokesman said he was not told but to take strike action as pickets ringed the factory at midnight In Los Angeles 20 union members began picketing the plant where 3 100 workers are employed

No disorders were reported

The union has been continuing negotiations with Goodyear in Cleveland and has ordered work to proceed on a day to day basis while holding talks with the U S Rubber Co in New York and the B F Goodrich Co in Cincinnati

U S Rubber has 35 000 workers in 19 plants across the country, and Goodrich has 18 000 employees in nine plants Contracts with both firms have expired

In the past the first company to sign a contract with the union generally sets a pattern for the rest of the industry

The union has demanded that Good car get a 29 cent an hour pay raise and 5½ cents to correct inequities in the present wage structure Demands on Firestone are reportedly similar though details have not been made public

Both Firestone and Goodyear have offered five-cents hourly pay raises on an industry average of $2 08-$2 10 The union rejected the offer as inadequate

Some Drivers Really Crazy

City Calls on Psychiatrist To Halt Traffic Carnage

CHICAGO (NANA) — If you firmly believe that the driver who plowed into your car is crazy and he counters that you are nuts you both may soon get a chance to prove it in the nation's courts.

The psychiatric approach to driving safety is scheduled to get a full tryout at the Municipal Court here. A special psychiatric clinic will be set up to examine drivers whose repeated accidents or flagrant violations of common sense and normal judgment casts doubt on their ability.

CHIEF JUSTICE Edward S. Scheffler in announcing the new program is following the advice of driving safety authorities who increasingly contend that "personality factors" are major causes of the mounting traffic toll of death and injury which they describe as a scourge.

The U. S. Army has announced it is shifting emphasis in the selection of its drivers from the road tests that have been used for 10 years to attempts to find out about the driver's personality.

Army transport officers say a man's potential safety record is now determined by his personality traits. They want no part of the type that is happy-go-lucky, good at bluffing or a devoteee of gambling.

The tense, overwrought driver, grimly trying to get ahead at all costs, came in for censure when Dr. Herman S. Schwartz of Elmhurst, N. Y., reported to the National Chiropractic Association that motorists who can smile now and then while driving are the safest.

A smile relaxes the eye and facial muscles and when they are relaxed our brains are more relaxed, according to Dr. Schwartz. He said that it is difficult to separate cause from effect when fatigue and grimness set in. When your eyes become strained, tension sets in and that brings fatigue, he added.

The objective of the Municipal Court's new psychiatric clinic for drivers here will be to check up on habitual traffic offenders, those who repeatedly ignore court summons. Judge Scheffler is determined to give to the psychiatric studies being made into driving accidents by authorities throughout the country. Some drivers who are in one accident after another involving fatalities, many injuries and heavy property damage may be regarded as "autoists gone berserk," he contends.

JUDGE SCHEFFLER said he believes most of the dividends may already have been realized in improved safety engineering of automobiles, highways and streets. But since psychiatrists have found that screwball motorists are really a little off in the head "there apparently is still a lot of room to improve safety. Such motorists must be taken from behind the wheel.

Hans Zeisel, professor of law and sociology at the University of Chicago is supplying the first comprehensive statistical analysis of what goes wrong in automobile accidents. He concludes that personality and environment appear to have a lot to do with hazardous driving. Some of his findings along this line are:

Unmarried drivers in their twenties are below - average safety risks. This is in spite of the fact that their reactions are speedier and should make them the best drivers. They take chances.

Forty per cent of all accidents occur on weekends.

Nearly half of all accidents happen at night.

People from low rental areas have about four times as many accidents as those living in higher rental areas.

The older the car and the younger the driver, the greater the speed.

Low and high traffic densities are the best protection against accidents, the former because there are fewer things to hit and the latter because there is less room for a running start to an accident.

ON THE PERSONALITY side Prof. Zeisel has discovered that some people are accident prone but only for certain types of accidents. Some specialize in rear end collisions, others in tangles at intersections and some in poor judgment on passing.

Tribe Slugs Detroit; Feller To Hurl Against Orioles

Rosen, Wertz Rap Homers; Yanks Gain With Two Wins

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bob Feller leads the Cleveland Indians tonight into a four-game series with the Baltimore Orioles in quest of the 259th victory of his major league pitching career.

A 20-game winner six seasons, the one-time fireballer is enjoying a successful 1954 and already has a 9-2 record. An assortment of curves and similar pitches has replaced the blazing fast ball of the 35-year-old veteran.

The opponent of the former strikeout king tonight probably will be Bob Turley, currently ruling the whiff department. The Baltimore hurler has a 9-11 record.

Yesterday, the Indians took the rubber game of a three-contest series with Detroit's troublesome Tigers 10-1. At the same time the New York Yankees swept a double-header from the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-4 and 7-1, and advanced half a game to within 2½ of the league-leading Tribe.

Al Rosen and Vic Wertz hit the biggest blows of the Cleveland offensive, Rosen a three-run homer that ended his worst slump in two years and Wertz a clout with no one aboard.

The Tigers ruined Bob Lemon's bid for a shutout in the eighth inning on singles by pinch-hitter Jim Delsing, Harvey Kuenn and Bill Tuttle.

Before his success yesterday, Rosen had failed to hit a homer since July 31, hadn't driven in a run in 12 games and had gone hitless in 21 trips to the plate.

Lemon twisted his left knee sliding into home plate in the seventh inning and Manager Al Lopez replaced him after the Tiger rally in the eighth with reliefer Don Mossi. Lemon's injury was not believed to be serious.

Collins Wins Knockout In Comeback Attempt

BOSTON (AP) — Featherweight Tommy Collins, who 18 months ago fell under Jimmy Carter's fists nine times in four rounds before a national television audience, today officially entered the comeback trail.

Collins knocked out Jimmy Ithia of New York City last night in 1:47 of the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round bout at the arena. Collins of Medford, Mass., weighed 127¼, Ithia 125¼.

Pacer Sets World Record in Harness Race in New York

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—The late William E. Miller, considered the greatest amateur harness racing driver of all time, knew what he was doing last fall when he paid $35,000 for Hillsota at the Harrisburg, Pa., sales.

The 75-year-old sulky veteran, who died as he always said he wanted to—while driving in a race, had sought a top pacer for his Orsecroft Breeding Farm at Oxon Hill, Md., and Hillsota took his eye.

Last night at Roosevelt Raceway, Billy Haughton, one of the nation's leading drivers, whipped the 4-year-old son of De Sota Hanover home a half length victor over the favored Philip Scott in the $35,000 Nassau mile and one half pace.

Not only did Hillsota cop the first money of $17,500, he set a world record of 3:04.8 to boot, wiping out the old mark of 3.05.6 made by Chuck Volo in winning the Nassau last year.

Thomas B. Scott, owned and driven by Tom Carlock, Greenville, Ohio, led for over a mile, then faded under the terrific pressure as nine of the nation's fastest pacers whirled around Roosevelt's half mile oval three times.

Reds Worry About Bell's Lack of Hits

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs, in the midst of a three-game winning streak and showing signs of a return to power hitting, still have a major worry. What can be done about Gus Bell's hitting slump?

Ever since he joined the Reds, Bell has been their most consistant hitter. Up until a couple of weeks ago he had stayed among the top half dozen hitters in the National League and was the Reds' leading runs-batted-in man.

Then he went into a tailspin. In his last 14 games he has had only six hits in 50 times at bat and is coming close to dropping out of the .300 group.

He didn't get a hit yesterday in three official trips as the other members of the team used extra base hits to whip the Chicago Cubs 8-6, and gain a clean sweep of the three-game series.

Gus has been taking extra batting practice and even has suggested use of a rabbit's foot to get out of his slump. But the slump continues.

Yesterday's victory over the Cubs was a repetition of Wednesday night's game—a comparatively few hits but plenty of runs.

Ted Kluszewski, Jim Greengrass and Wally Post hit home runs to make it eight in two games for the Rhinelanders.

The Reds collected only nine hits in the victory but seven of them were for extra bases. In addition to the homers, Kluszewski had a triple, and Post, Bobby Adams and Johnny Temple each had doubles.

In their last two games the Rhinelanders have scored 16 runs on 18 hits and have blasted eight home runs.

The St. Louis Cardinals move in tonight for a three-game series with Joe Nuxhall slated to pitch against the Birds' best—Harvey Haddix.

The Cincinnati home runs accounted for the first five Redleg tallies yesterday. Kluszewski and Greengrass hit solo jobs and Post got his with two on. Meanwhile, Ernie Banks hit a two-run homer off Bud Podbielan.

Podbielan weakened in the seventh, however, and gave up two more runs but Kluszewski's triple in the last half of that frame drove in Adams, who had doubled and Bell, who had walked, with what proved to be the winning runs.

The weakening Podbielan finally had to have help in the eighth as the Cubs scored twice. Howie Judson came on to halt things.

Toledo Sox Drub Saints With 19 Hits

Variety is the spice of American Association baseball, too.

While all other games last night were featuring tight pitching, the Toledo Sox exploded in a 19-hit onslaught to drub St. Paul's Saints, 16-2.

Louisville used two splendid mound performances to sweep a doubleheader from Minneapolis 4-1 and 7-4 and strengthen its hold on second place.

Tom Casagrande stopped the Millers on four hits in the opener and Bill Werle followed through with a six hitter in the nightcap.

But the best pitching job was a three-hitter by Lou Sleater as the cellarite Charleston Senators blanked Kansas City, 5-0.

Columbus scored its second consecutive victory over the league-leading Indianapolis Indians, 6-5, behind the seven hit pitching of Mel Wright, who chalked up his third successive triumph.

Hal Smith sparked the Red Birds with a home run and two singles.

13,500 Fans Expected

North All-Stars Favored In Schoolboy Grid Game

By FRITZ HOWELL

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Ohio puts its high school football talent on display tonight in the ninth annual All-Star North-South game expected to attract some 13,500 fans, including college coaches from all parts of the midwest, South and East.

Fifty of the Buckeye's best seniors of 1953 divided into squads of 25 will battle it out under the lights starting at 8:15 p. m. (EST) in a game in which the North, coached by Jim Robinson of Canton Lehman, is highly favored. Of the previous eight games, the South has won four, lost three and tied one, and a victory for the North tonight would square the series.

The talent-laden upstate team, filled with All-Ohio stars, is rated one of the best all-around squads ever to appear in the annual classic. The North has a decided weight advantage, and its backfield boasts five of the state's high-scoring seniors of the 1953 season.

Bill Kidd of New Philadelphia, head coach of the Rebels, is pinning most of his hopes on the defensive strength of his club. Kidd's own high school team last fall allowed only one touchdown in a nine-game unbeaten season. All eyes will be on Glenn Davis, Barberton's All-Ohio halfback, who won three events and finished third in another to win the recent Ohio Class A track championship all by himself.

The northern team will wear new blue and gold uniforms with gold helmets and the South will wear white uniforms with red numerals and helmets.

More than 100 sportswriters will cover the game and a play-by-play account will be carried by radio stations WGAR of Cleveland, WTOL of Toledo, WJER of Dover, WCOL of Columbus and WIZE of Springfield.

Coach Robinson said despite the fact his team is heavily favored, he believes breaks will decide the contest and not more than a touchdown would separate the clubs at the finish.

Kidd said, "We'll be in their trying all the way and you can't tell what will happen."

The rival co-captains, Ron Couch (Middletown) and Leo Brown (Portsmouth) of the South and Bruce Schram (Massillon) and Davis of the North, all expressed confidence that their team would win.

Reds Threaten To Set New Double Play Mark

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs are threatening their own National League record for double plays in a season. Cincinnati set the league record with 194 twin killings in 1928 and equalled the mark in 1931.

The Redlegs reeled off their 146th double play in 113 games yesterday as they defeated the Cubs, 8-6. They now need 48 double plays in their remaining 41 games to tie the record again.

Lions Rated Touchdown Over Stars

By TED SMITS

CHICAGO (AP)—The College All-Stars meet the Detroit Lions at Soldier Field tonight in the first big game of the 1954 football season with a crowd of 90,000 expected. Gross receipts will reach $450,000, mostly going to charity.

The collegians have a fair chance to get their seventh victory in 21 games because they have first rate passers and because the Lions will be handicapped by playing under college rules. The Lions, however, remain one touchdown favorites.

Jim Tatum of Maryland coach of the nation's No. 1 college team last fall, will probably start Zeke Bratkowski at quarterback for the All-Stars. Bratkowski completed 360 passes out of 734 attempts for 4,863 yards and 24 touchdowns in three years at Georgia. Backing him up are Cotton Davidson, Baylor; Bobby Garrett, Stanford; Lamar McHan, Arkansas, and Vince Dooley, Auburn, all top-notch passers.

The Lions, champions of the National Football League, have a great passer in Bobby Layne, but coach Buddy Parker may save him for the regular season and depend on Tom Dublinski. Furthermore, the Lions must use their men on both offense and defense whereas pro football is still playing two platoons and liking it. Needless to say the Lions are unhappy.

Coach Parker faced up to the problem of creating an all-around, one platoon squad out of his two platoon specialists by using his regular offensive line — which will average 238 pounds — in front of a patched backfield that includes, besides Dublinski, Doak Walker, Jack Christiansen and Lewis Carpenter.

Tatum has created a backfield to support Bratkowski by teaming his own Chester Hanulak with Notre Dame's Johnny Lattner and Neil Worden. In all the collegians will start three men from Maryland and three from Notre Dame.

The game, which starts at 8:30 p.m. EST will go to 570 radio stations on the WGN-Mutual network, and to 164 television stations on the DuMont network, the biggest TV coverage ever. Net proceeds go to the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.

Milwaukee 6½ Back

Braves Creeping Up, Watch Giants Clash With Dodgers

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The New York Giants may find out tonight whether such is to be their fate.

They invade Brooklyn for three games with the second place Dodgers and the way both teams have been playing lick will go a long way in determining the outcome.

Neither New York nor Brooklyn has been a ball of fire in recent weeks. They've stayed 1-2 in the National League pennant chase mainly by default.

Now the Milwaukee Braves are creeping up. Many more mistakes by either of the first two clubs could prove fatal.

Sure the Giants have held most of the trumps in their showdowns with their metropolitan rivals. They've won 9 of the 13 games and lead the Dodgers by 3½ lengths. Six of the remaining five games will be played in Brooklyn, three in the last week of the season.

Fans have been ganging up on the Brooklyn box office but the managers remain strangely silent. Neither Leo Durocher nor Walt Alston has gone so far as to predict a sweep.

Durocher even has been hesitant in picking a pitcher. For two seasons Sal Maglie has been the automatic choice to open any series with Brooklyn. But the aging right-hander was whipped in the Giants' last trip across the river and Leo has notions of using Ruben Gomez tonight with Maglie waiting for tomorrow's sunshine. Carl Erskine definitely will go for the Dodgers tonight.

The clubs should be rested. They both had the day off yesterday. Milwaukee took advantage of their idleness and moved within 6½ games of the top and within three games of Brooklyn by beating St. Louis 3-1. Cincinnati whipped Chicago 8-6 in the only other National League action.

The New York Yankees moved up half a game on Cleveland by winning a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athletics 5-4 and 7-1. But the Indians trounced Detroit 10-1 and still lead by 2½ games. Boston and Washington split. The Senators won the first game 9-5 but were beaten by Baltimore 4-3 in the second. Sad Sam Jones and Chicago watched solemnly.

Philadelphia made the Yankees work for the first game victory. Bobby Shantz had to be at his best to beat Mickey Mantle decided matters in the eighth with his 26th homer.

Eddie Lopat was the first Yankee pitcher to go the route against the Athletics. Bobby Brown stroked the eighth of the Yankees' 12 hits.

The Yankees pounded three Detroit pitchers for 12 hits to back Al Rosen's three-run homer, his first since the early part of July. Rosen's circuit drive has been one of three times in his last 44 at bats. Bob Lemon coasted to his 16th victory.

Jackie Jensen hit his 19th homer for the Red Sox in their first game loss to Washington and was the batting star of the Boston victory in the second game as he drove in two runs and scored a pair.

Lefty Warren Spahn, who has had trouble winning this season, was a cinch to win for the Braves against the Cardinals. He gave a six-hitter, struck out seven and walked nobody. In winning their sixth straight and their 17th in their last 19 outings, the Braves bunched all of their runs in the fourth inning on an error, two singles, a double to Andy Pafko and a long foul fly. The loss was the fifth in a row for St. Louis.

Prospect Wins League Game From Indians

Marion's Indians lost a chance to capture the American League flag of the County Teen loop last night at Lincoln Park when they dropped a 6-2 decision to Prospect

The Indians won a forfeit in the other portion of the scheduled twin bill when Pleasant was unable to field a team due to most of their players being on vacation

Bob Rodgers hurled his Prospect team mates to the win on a two-hitter. The locals failed to capitalize on Rodgers' wildness as he walked 12 batters and hit 2. He struck out 14.

Harold Jones was the Indian starter and he gave way to Larry Corbin The hurlers were rocked for six hits. Jones and Corbin struck out 12 while walking seven and hitting a batter.

The game was marked by injury to Phil Carroll, Indians' fielder He suffered a lacerated ear which required three sutches at Marion City Hospital when struck by a pitched ball in the first inning. He was released from the hospital after treatment

The games concluded the Indians' regularly scheduled season with a 12-6 mark. Prospect, with an 11-5 mark, has a twin bill with Green Camp Sunday remaining It must win both games over third-place Green Camp to win the American League pennant should Prospect split, the Indians and Prospect would be tied for top spot and a sudden death playoff game would be played Monday night at Lincoln Park to determine the American champion

Baseball for Boys officials announced today that the best three-out-of-five game series for the county championship will begin Monday or Tuesday night depending on a playoff game in the American loop

The Fraternal Order of Police squad was winner of the National League title The series between FOP and the American loop winner will be on a home and home basis if Prospect comes through, officials announced.

Prospect last night clinched the game early with two runs in the first and two more in the fourth The remaining runs were scored in the fourth and sixth innings Marion scored once in the fourth and once in the sixth.

Don Shoemaker and Howard Gruber had the Marion hits while Lauer had two for Prospect and Lardon, Rodgers, B. Emery and R. Emery each added one apiece

Wilcox Breaks Jones' Winning Streak in Race

Charles Wilcox of Richwood broke J L Jones' winning streak at six at the Richwood Speedway last night by winning the feature event. Jones was forced out in the early laps with car difficulties

Wilcox, driving the car formerly driven by Jones, came in ahead of Truman Redenbaugh of Delaware, Ralph Ray of Belle Center and Jim Hamilton of Richwood

A field of 25 cars started the feature which was marked by several wrecks The race had to be restarted when Joe Erwin of Richwood hit the guard rail coming out of the north turn on the third lap.

On the tenth lap Fred Chandler of Marysville hit the guard rail and Clyde Looney spun out on the seventeenth lap and stalled on the track No one was injured

Jones came through to victory in the first event with Wilcox second and Jake Knight of Marion third Walt Tannerhill was slightly shaken up in this race when he tangled up with Jones on the second lap and rolled over

Ray crossed the finish line first in the second event with Bill Moore, driving for the first time on any track, second and Dick Baughman third

Jim Hamilton was first in the third event, being trailed by Jack Hedges of Delaware and Chet Johnson of Radnor.

Jones was winner of the winner's handicap race with Johnson and Moore coming in second and third. Joe Erwin led the field in the first consolation event with Looney second and Ed Douglas third. Bob Hinarton was in second spot until he spun out on the third lap

Redenbaugh took the flag in the second consolation with Hamilton second and Chet Howard of Mount Gilead third

Arteries Transplanted

Patients 'Frozen' in New Technique of Operating

LONDON (AP) — Brain surgery teams are replacing damaged arteries—cutting off the vital blood supply for as long as an hour—by a new deep-freeze operation technique

In one case the surgeons worked under such strain they took turns lying on a couch while removing a man's fatally diseased main artery Ordinarily stoppage of the blood through this passage to the spinal cord would have caused complete paralysis

IN THIS CASE however the borrowed artery was successfully transplanted as the patient his body temperature reduced to 78 degrees by packed in ice and chilled under fans The living tissues under the newly proven system survived with less of the oxygen carrying blood because they were kept so cool

This has been previously demonstrated in heart operations when the brain deprived of blood supply for a few minutes under the super cooling process known as hypothermia had remained undamaged

Result of years of research the 'freeze' operations will bring within range of the surgeon's knife patients previously considered hopeless according to medical authorities here The technique was first used successfully by a team at London's St Mary's Hospital where Sir Alexander Fleming discovered penicillin

In a series of operations the St Mary's surgical team led by 41 year-old Professor Charles Granville Rob broke a cardinal rule of surgery—that the patient should be kept warm Rubber bags containing ice were packed around the patient's unclothed body Electric fans were aimed to blow cold air over wet sheets covering him

THE SURGEONS who normally work sweating freely in the overheated theatre were glad to have underwear beneath their gowns One of these history making operations lasted more than 11 hours with relays of surgeons and anaesthetists taking part

In another a team from St Thomas Hospital London led by Dr Harry Churchill Davidson cooperated with the St Mary's unit

KISS FOR GOVERNOR Mrs Orval Faubus gives her grinning husband a kiss as unofficial returns showed the weekly newspaper publisher shattering Arkansas tradition by defeating Gov Francis Cherry's bid for a second term in the Democratic primary Picture was made in Little Rock Ark

The strain on the surgeons was so great they took it in turns to go out for a rest on a couch and drink cups of tea

In one case a young woman's main blood stream was stopped for a whole hour Her deficient main artery which was almost fatally robbing her of the power of her legs and kidneys was replaced

By using the cooling method many life saving operations to graft in main arteries bequeathed by volunteers and kept in deep freeze are now possible according to medical authorities here The next great step some envisage is toward the time when any human organ can be replaced from stores of spare parts in deep freeze

'Fringe Benefits' Make Wage Estimates Difficult

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U S Chamber of Commerce says that workers' wages can't longer be accurately measured by dollars and cents pay rates estimated today that employers pay out 20 to 25 billion dollars a year in pensions insurance and other so-called wage fringe benefits

In many cases the Chamber said employes and workers prefer to have income reflected entirely or chiefly in the pay envelope rather than in fringe benefits

Lawyers Seek To Free Triangle Slayer From Mental Hospital

IONIA Mich (AP)—An attorney for Dr Kenneth B Smith acquitted triangle slayer moved swiftly through legal channels today in an effort to free the Detroit dentist from the Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane

Stymied in one attempt attorney Leo Hoffman had an application for a writ of habeas corpus ready for filing at the opening of Ionia County Circuit Court

Supreme Court Won't Act

Hoffman turned to the court here after he was unable to get immediate action from the state supreme court on his emergency application for leave to appeal from the refusal of circuit court in Allegan to release Dr Smith

It was in Allegan that Circuit Judge Raymond L Smith ordered the 31 year old dentist's immediate commitment to a mental institution yesterday

That was the latest in a series of sensational developments stemming from the May 29 slaying of Jules Lack fun loving New York businessman Lack was shot down at close range at a gay weekend house party at a swank summer home on Lake Michigan in Allegan County

Admits Shooting

Dr Smith admitted the shooting but claimed that a romance his attractive wife Edith 30 was carrying on with Lack drove him to it His plea of temporary insanity won him acquittal by a jury on a first-degree murder charge July 17 Under Michigan court procedure such a verdict frequently frees a defendant within hours or days

The commitment order stipulated that the dentist remain confined in a mental institution for the rest of his natural life or until he is found sane by the State Mental Health Commission

Officials at the Ionia hospital said it probably would be 30 to 60 days before psychiatrists attempt to determine Dr Smith is sane

Effects of New Law

More Liberal Tax Deductions Allowed

By CHARLES F. BARRETT

WAHINGTON (AP) — If you buy something on the installment plan . . .

If you make big donations to charity . . .

If you pay some of your transportation expense in your work . . .

If your employer provides your meals or lodging . . .

Then you may get a tax cut under the big tax revision act recently passed by Congress.

Tenth of a Series

These are some of the scores of new or more liberal deductions allowed under the rules. You can count them in your 1954 return, due next April 15 (not March 15 any longer).

HERE IS A run-down on some of the deductions:

Installment purchase — The act permits you to deduct from your income, for tax purposes, any interest you pay. Under the old law, you could deduct interest on installment purchases only if the interest was stated separately in your bills.

If you just paid a general carrying charge and didn't know how much of it was interest, you got no deduction. Under the new law, even if the interest is not stated separately, you may automatically deduct 6 per cent of the average unpaid balance of your bill during the tax year. If the interest is stated separately, of course, you deduct the exact interest. This item alone is expected to give about 1,600,000 taxpayers a tax cut totaling about 10 million dollars.

Charitable contributions — You may now deduct up to 30 per cent of your income for contributions to charity and benevolences. The old limit was 20 per cent. But the extra 10 per cent is allowable only for contributions to churches or religious groups, educational institutions or hospitals. In other words, if you claim the full 30 per cent, at least 10 per cent must be for contributions to those organizations. This provision is expected to reduce revenues by 25 million dollars a year—and be a big help to charitable organizations seeking funds.

TRANSPORTATION expenses — The new rules govern your business transportation expense where (1) you are not reimbursed by your employer and (2) the expense is not incurred in overnight travel away from home. Under the old law, these expenses could be deducted only under personal deductions. This meant that to claim them, you had to itemize all your personal deductions and forego the standard 10 per cent personal deduction allowed most taxpayers. In many cases it wouldn't pay you to itemize these transportation expenses and other deductions because the standard 10 per cent would give you a bigger total deduction. In effect, the new law permits you to deduct these transportation expenses and, in addition, take the standard deduction of 10 per cent of your remaining income. You could already do this under the old law if your business transportation expenses were reimbursed by your employer, (and thus included in your gross income), or incurred in overnight travel away from home.

Here is an example of how the new rules work. Say you had expenses of $300 covered by the new rule, with other personal deductions of $200 and an income of $6,000. Under the old law you could itemize your deductions and claim only $500, while you could get $600 under the standard 10 per cent. Under the new law, you could deduct your $300 transportation expense and still deduct 10 per cent of your remaining $5,700 income. That would be a total deduction of $870, instead of the $600 under the old law—a tax cut of at least $54.20.

MEALS AND LODGING—Under the old law, an employe could be taxed on meals and lodging provided by an employer if there was any indication at all that this was considered part of the employe's compensation. Under the new law, they will be taxed as income only if they are provided clearly for the convenience of the employer. Thus, as in the case of many government institutions where employes are required to eat and live on the premises, these items might not be taxed even though the institutions consider them part of the employe's pay.

Phenomena Studied

Regular 'Fever' in Sun Affects Our Atmosphere

WASHINGTON (NANA) — The sun appears to suffer from an intermittent fever that affects its whole constitution.

Occurrences visible on the star's surface — the well-known sunspots, bright patches, geysers of flaming gas thousands of miles high and titanic, strangely shaped prominances—all increase and diminish in approximately the same eleven-year cycle.

THIS REGULARLY indicates that the happenings are not unconnected phenomena, but results of some common cause, the nature of which is unknown, in the sun's interior.

The thesis of a basic internal distrubance was advanced by Dr. John W. Evans, director of the Air Forces solar observatory at Sunspot, N.Mex., on top of Sacramento mountain about 100 miles north of El Paso.

Two kinds of solar phenomena are still almost completely unexplained, Dr. Evans said. First are magnetic storms that affect the earth's upper atmosphere and interfere with radio communications every 27 days.

No occurrence of any kind on the surface of the sun has been observed that would account for them, Dr. Evans said.

The sun rotates on its axis in a period of 27 days. The storms evidently occur each time the earth is under a particular spot on the solar disk, but this spot cannot be identified with anything which can be observed.

The second mystery is an apparent "anti-gravity" force on the sun. Vast red clouds of hydrogen and helium float thousands of miles above the surface. They drift far above the altitude where there is any atmosphere in which they can float. By all known laws of physics they should fall to the star's surface. Yet they continue to float for indefinite periods.

ANY THEORY that the supposedly universal law of gravity may be suspended on the sun is too far-fetched, Dr. Evans said. Solar astronomers now believe that the anti-gravity phenomenon is associated with the sun's magnetic field. That, however, is as far as they are able to go.

Radio fade - outs occur, Dr. Evans said, when the electrically charged ionosphere—the layer of the atmosphere about 60 miles high, where the density is only about a millionth of that near the earth's surface—is pushed down about 20 miles. Here is what happens, present observations show:

The ionosphere is normally created when ultraviolet rays and streams of protons from the sun break up atmospheric molecules. Neither of these can penetrate much deeper than the 60-mile level. level.

During solar disturbances, indicated by sunspots and solar flares, another "color" of ultraviolet—radiation falling within the ultraviolet part of the spectrum but of a different wave-length—apparently is emanated.

This radiation penetrates into thicker atmosphere where it creates an electrified layer. But now instead of a clear mirror for reflecting radio waves there is a "dirty, sticky mirror" that absorbs these waves.

The earth's magnetic field, Dr. Evans said, seems to have an "elastic surface" which is distorted by heavy rains of particles from the sun.

Marion Firm Files Appeal to Ruling of Tax Commissioner

A Marion frozen desert maker has appealed to the Ohio Supreme Court because the state tax commissioner refused to consider the firm a manufacturer.

Jer-Zee, Inc., of Marion, appealed from an order classifying its equipment as tangible personal property taxable at 70 per cent of true value instead of 50 per cent, between 1951 and 1953.

The firm claimed it was entitled to the lower valuation as a manufacturer. The tax commissioner insisted it was not manufacturing to make frozen desert similar to ice cream by cooling and adding air to a mixture prepared by a milk company.

The state board of tax appeals upheld his contention and the Marion firm appealed to the court.

Union Reports Increase In Rail Unemployment

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen says more railroad men are out of work today than at any time since the depression.

W. P. Kennedy of Cleveland, Ohio, said in an interview last night "lack of any governmental coordinated program" to keep industry busy and farm prices up is the main contributing factor.

Kennedy said at present 25,000 of the BRT's 212,000 members aren't working.

LEAVES $122,000 ESTATE

MOUNT GILEAD —Estate of the late Benjamin Olds, Mount Gilead attorney, was valued at $122,351.63 according to records at the probate court in Mount Gilead. The amount included $49,974 in stocks and securities and $44,500 in real estate. The estate is to be divided between his widow and three children, Mrs. Barbara Jolley of Mount Gilead, Mrs. Iris Whitney of Shelby and James Olds of Akron.

HELPLESS GET PROTECTION. Two baby robins which were out of their nest flopping about on a Chicago lawn, a prey to cats and dogs, while learning to fly, found a friend in Joe Zack, a Chicago Daily News photographer. He put them in a birdcage until they could get more acclimated in a strange hostile world. The cage permitted mama Robin to feed them. At day's end the robins were freed in custody of mama.

Senate To Consider Flood Control Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to authorize a billion dollar program of flood control and navigation projects probably will come before the Senate early next week.

Senate officials said today indications are the Senate will not take up the bill before Monday or Tuesday.

The Senate Public Works Committee approved the bill last month and thus cleared the way for Senate consideration.

Former Mayor Is Found Guilty of Drunk Driving

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — A former mayor of nearby Sheffield Lake, William A. Holley, was convicted yesterday of drunken driving, fined $200 and costs, and sentenced to three days in the Lorain County jail.

A jury of six men and six women took four and a half hours to convict Holley, 66. Municipal Judge Leroy F. Kelly passed sentence, but withheld its imposition after defense attorneys said a motion for a new trial would be filed.

The judge also suspended Holley's driving rights for a year.

Holley had testified he was suffering from diabetis when state patrolmen saw his car weaving last May 31 and arrested him.

Man Says Wife Charges Fee for Use of Bathtub

PONTYPRIDD, Wales (AP)—Moses S. Morgan, 63, told a judge yesterday his wife threw him out of the house three months ago and has since charged him a fee to come in for a bath.

Defending against her divorce suit on a desertion charge, Morgan said he had been sleeping in the open since last May. He claimed Mrs. Morgan collected 35 cents every time she let him use the bathtub.

Judge Owen Temple-Morris postponed the case and advised the couple to try for a reconciliation.

OHIOAN REPORTS TO IKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Irving Reynolds of Tulsa, Ohio, reported to President Eisenhower yesterday on a world tour. Reynolds, Republican candidate for Congress in Ohio's 9th District, was one of a number of businessmen sent on the three-month tour by the Department of Agriculture. He surveyed prospects of disposing of surplus American farm produce. Ohio's 9th district now is represented by Frazier Reams, an Independent.

Stewart Fires 65 To Lead in World Tourney

CHICAGO — The "world" championship at Tam O'Shanter, paying the winner $50,000 in cash and a guaranteed $50,000 exhibition contract, today was off to one of the most fantastic starts in golf tournament history.

With Earl Stewart Jr.'s 65 the best effort, 54 of the 96 pros matched or bettered Tam's standard 36-36—72 in yesterday's first round. It was one of the biggest uprisings against par ever recorded in a major golf tournament.

Stewart, of Dallas, whose last tourney victory was in the Ardmore Open 16 months ago, appeared like an innocent bystander in a terrific jam as he set out to protect his lead. The red-haired, former National Intercollegiate champion from Louisiana State, posted his dazzling 30-35—65 early as the barrier was sprung yesterday, then dared anyone to come close.

Walter Burkemo, the 1953 National PGA champion and runner-up this year, blazed home in 66. Johnny Palmer, Bob Toski and Dutch Harrison caught the money scent for 67's. Seven shared 68's—Henry Ransom, Dave Douglas, British Open champion Peter Thomson of Melbourne, Shelley Mayfield, Sam Snead, Claude Harmon and Jim Turnesa.

Even the women were having a picnic with par. Patty Berg took aim in the $12,000 women's pro bracket with a blistering 69 to match Babe Zaharias' competitive course record set last week in the Tam All-American.

Marion Little Leaguers To Attend Indians' Game

Marion's Little Leaguers will be guests of the Cleveland Baseball Club Sunday at the annual Little League Day at Cleveland Stadium. The first-place Indians are playing the Baltimore Orioles in a twin bill.

Dick McClarey, Little League player agent who received the invitation from the Indians ball club, announced that nearly 200 Little League players, managers, coaches, umpires and other Little League officials are expected to attend the event from Marion.

Little Leaguers and officials from all over Ohio and portions of Pennsylvania and West Virginia are invited annually to the day set aside for the Little League ball players. Nearly 10,000 boys and officials will be there.

Players and officials will leave Marion early Sunday morning in car loads for ceremonies prior to the double header at 11:45 a.m. Marion time. Little Leaguers will all meet in a practice football field opposite Gate C at Cleveland Stadium and then will march around the Stadium track waving banners and pennants designating their groups. They will be seated in the stands in left and right fields for the game, scheduled to begin at 12:30 p.m. Marion time.

Managers of each Little League team in Marion are in charge of arranging transportation for their team members. Admission to the game is free for the Little Leaguers and officials but they must provide their own food.

This year will mark the third year Marion has sent Little Leaguers to Little League Day.

Marion Teams Win at Galion; Collide Tonight

Marion's hopes in the district tournament at Galion Carl's Auto Parts and Mac's Trading Post advanced with wins over Mount Vernon teams there last night.

Carl's blanked Cochran Motors, 1-0, while Mac's trimmed Victory Market, 4-2.

Tonight in tournament which is now double-elimination, Carl's will battle Mac's in the nightcap scheduled for 9:30 p.m. Victory Market and Cochran Motors, each with a loss, collide in the 8 p.m. opener.

Sonny Taylor hurled Carl's to its success with his fourth straight shutout of the tournament. Taylor held the losers to two hits.

The tilt was won in the final frame. Reefsnyder led off the bottom of the seventh with a hit and after moving to third on a walk and error, scored the winning run on a fly ball to centerfield.

Cochran Motors had men on second and third in the last of the sixth with no one out but Taylor bore down to set the side down in order and eliminate the enemy threat.

Carl's collected their four hits off Dwight Arnold in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings. Two of them came in the sixth.

Bud England hurled Mac's to its win over Victory Market on a five-hitter. Three runs in the top of the sixth by Mac's clinched the win and offset a run scored by the losers in the last of the seventh.

Mac's clubbed six hits off Shad Gallegher of the losers, netting two in the third, two in the fourth and two in the sixth.

Victory Market scored first, a run in the third but Mac's came back to tie it up in the next frame and went on to win with three more in the sixth.

Bob Smith of the losers who had almost personally eliminated Smitty's All Stars from the tournament this week with a two-run homer, clouted his third homer of the tournament last night off England in the seventh.

Rizzo had two of Mac's six hits with Thacker, Bob England, Harbolt and Setter netted the other safeties.

Golfer Coaxed To Play, Wins Links Tourney

PAYTON, Ohio — A man who had to be coaxed into entering the National Lefthanders Golf tournament is the southpaws' new champion.

About six weeks ago Don Weasner of Toledo visited his old friend Ray Steckmyer, Dayton, who then was president of the National Assn. of Lefthanded Golfers.

Weasner, 38-year-old automobile dealer, was talked into staying in his room at the Miami Valley Golf Club. Weasner saw a putter he liked and he bought it.

Weasner returned to the same course this week and using his new putter yesterday, eliminated four days of golf by winning the National Lefthanders champ title. He defeated Dave Bardam, 25-year-old recently released Army veteran from South Orange, N. J.

Church Briefs From the District

Sermon theme Sunday morning at the Likens Covenant Church will be "Christian Warfare." At 8 p.m. Sunday, the film, "Out of the Night" will be shown. This picture of city rescue work was produced by the Pacific Garden Mission of Chicago, Ill. The service will be open to the public, the pastor, Rev. Warren W. Lindstrom, announced.

Because of vacation of the pastor, Rev. Paul E. Dobberstein, worship services of St. Paul Lutheran Church at Prospect will not be held the next two Sundays. Sunday School will be held as usual at 9:30 a.m. each Sunday, and church service will be resumed Aug. 29.

Sermon theme Sunday morning at First Methodist Church in Richwood will be "The Focus of Your Life."

Who really believes women will be contented to stop with the pipe? One step further and we'll have the spittoon in decorator colors.

Bible Words for Today

LUKE 10:27—"Jesus answered, you must love the Lord your God with your whole heart, your whole soul, your whole strength, and your whole mind and your neighbor as you do yourself." (Goodspeed Version)

• • •

The longer I think about the heart and core of religion, the more I realize that Jesus here has put His finger upon that which is essential. It is not to be confused with ecclesiastical polity, dogma and ceremonial, but to be seen as the essential element of human life for abundant living. It is to have the deepest reverence, respect, honor and love for the source out of which we all came, which for lack of a better name we call God, and the same attitude of mind and emotions toward our fellows who have come from this same source. When the worship, doctrines and disciplines of the churches can increase and intensify love for God and love for man, they are being effective.

Miss U.S.A. Must Buy Savings Bond Each Week

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Miss U.S.A. of 1953 must buy a U.S. Savings Bond each week.

Superior Court yesterday approved the 7-year contract of Miss Myrna Hansen, 20, with Universal-International Studio and instructed her to purchase a $25 bond weekly from her earnings. The pact calls for a salary of $200 a week with an eventual weekly maximum of $900.

Miss Hansen represented Illinois in last year's Miss Universe contest.

Inmate Sues Members Of Parole Commission

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Members of Ohio's Pardon and Parole Commission yesterday were sued for $75,000 by Ohio Penitentiary inmate William A. Doban of Cleveland. Doban claims the commission's report on him to Gov. Frank J. Lausche contained a "false and malicious" statement. He was sentenced in 1950 for 10 to 25 years on a charge of armed robbery. Commissioners are Percy Lowery, Lawrence E. Hackenberg and Roy E. Harmony.

NAVYMAN HELD

An 18-year-old Detroit youth is being held today as absent without leave from the Navy. He was picked up by city police on E. Fairground St. at 8 p.m. Thursday. Naval authorities in Mansfield have been notified.

Sumner used 37 4 million as the average number of families in the nation during that period.

ACCIDENT TREE.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt—(UP)—On a Sunday morning an automobile was wrecked when it crashed into a tree at a curve on Route 53. The following Sunday morning another car was wrecked against the same tree.

One bright spot in the controversy over the Dior flat look is that it will have died down by the time the television comedians end their summer vacations.

Request of Soviet Students To Tour America Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP)—A request by 15 Russian student-editors to visit the United States has been given a polite turndown and a suggestion to try later

The Soviet students in a move which appeared to be a transAtlantic prong of the Soviet's post-Stalin cultural offensive had asked for a chance to get acquainted with student life in America.

The U S government's "not now" was pinned to the date they had chosen—sometime in August. School's out in August, the rejection noted and wouldn't some later date be better?

Officials said today the notification went last week from the U S embassy in Moscow to the Soviet foreign office

The request from the 15 students came as a reciprocal gesture. As pictured, the Russians' visit would be in return for trips made to Russia by several American college editors during the past year or so.

The Soviet students had laid out an ambitious program of travel to a number of American schools in New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Atlanta

Psychological Boost

President's Report Seen As Stimulant to Business

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Another nudge is being given to business. This time it's psychological.

The President in his mid-year report on the state of the economy sets out to allay any remaining fears that the slump hasn't yet run its course and to build up confidence of businessmen and consumers that the months ahead will be brighter.

Stimulates Sales

Such confidence — according to the theory of the psychological nudge—should lead consumers to go ahead with plans to buy things they want once they get over worrying lest their incomes might fall. It should lead industry and trade managements to go ahead with plans to expand, to place orders for future delivery.

Businessmen realize that there are political implications in many economic discussions these days. They see the political hay that can be made out of saying business is bad — and the political advantage to saying business is sound.

But businessmen must plan ahead—and to do that they must discuss present conditions and future probabilities. And then it'll give the President's mid-year economic report close scrutiny.

The statistics at mid-year many businessmen note add up pretty much to a picture of stability. For some time now there has been little change in many of the key factors in the economy—they have not fallen very much, neither have they gained very much.

Employment has remained high. The rise in unemployment leveled off in the early months of the year and the total of the jobless has risen only a little since then.

Total income from wages and salaries is below the peak of just a year ago. But it hasn't changed noticeably since February.

Sales Holding Up

Consumer buying is off in some lines—particularly in the big ticket durable goods. And new installment loans aren't being taken out as fast as last year. But retail sales in general are holding remarkably steady.

Business inventories at mid-year are more than $5 billion dollars lower than a year ago—indicating that many business concerns are now in a position to buy once the right trade time comes along.

Industrial production is still running about 8 per cent below a year ago, compared with a 10 per cent drop earlier in the year. Summer vacations help to hold it down. But the fact that mail and factory order backlogs are much lower is probably a still greater factor.

Adding up all these things many businessmen have concluded that the worst is over—and was never as bad as many had first anticipated. But signs of a real pick up at either the production or the consumption level haven't been strong.

Many describe the situation as: Business is now on dead center—pretty well adjusted to the change over to a peacetime economy after Korea, but not moving much in any direction at the moment.

This is the psychological time as they see it for a nudge. It could spur retail sales. It could spur the placing of orders with factories. It could spur a step-up in factory schedules.

Janitors Declare 'War' on Crawford Courthouse Birds

BUCYRUS — Custodians at the Crawford County courthouse here today declared war on pigeons which have been roosting on the courthouse roof and eaves for many years.

Janitors Paul Fox and Ted Marquis disclosed that a quantity of purchase pigeon repellent has been ordered to rid the courthouse of the long time nuisance.

Preliminary tests of the substance made over a two-month period indicates the substance but does not harm the birds but does discourage their remaining in the vicinity of the building, the janitors reported. The substance recommended by the National Bird Control Laboratory is claimed to be non-inflammable, easy to apply, humane and will not wash away.

The main portion of the substance is scheduled to arrive sometime next week and will be applied on various surfaces of the courthouse by Marquis and Fox using fire department ladders.

County commissioners said several hundred dollars were spent last summer to repair the roof and clean the drains because of damages caused by the roosting pigeons.

Petit Larceny Charge Brings Fine at Galion

GALION—Haywood Pennington, 30, of Cawood, Ky., was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail on a charge of petit larceny when he was given a hearing before Mayor Francis C. Schilp this week.

The charge was brought by Mrs. Fanny Estep of Galion who claimed that Pennington took $50 while the two were making a financial transaction.

The mayor also fined Clyde A. Worchester of Galion $15 and costs on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. He was involved in an accident when his car struck a parked car owned by Don Rood at 835 Harding Way East.

DAV Chapter Schedules Annual Family Gathering

The annual picnic for the Marion chapter of the Disabled American Veterans will be held this Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Ted Messenger home on Route 95 in Cardington.

Sponsored for chapter members and their families each year, the program will include a picnic dinner, pony rides for the children, horseshoe pitching and various games. Arrangements for the affair have been made by Mrs. Charlotte Evans, chairman, George Simpson and Frank Bussler, chapter commander.

Members are asked to bring their own sandwiches and table service.

The Messenger home is located on the east edge of Cardington on Route 95. The chapter flag and colors will be placed at the gate along the highway to assist members in finding the home.

Crawford County Road Bids Will Be Accepted

BUCYRUS — Crawford County Commissioners here Thursday authorized County Engineer Ernest Stetzer to advertise for bids for the paving of 2.15 miles of the Baker Road in Vernon Township.

Estimated cost of the improvement of the road section with waterbound macadam located between State Routes 96 and 598 is roughly $25,000, Engineer Stetzer reported. Width of the pavement is 16 feet.

String of Hotels Planned In Florida Development

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — (NANA)—A building development here that started with history's biggest land sale is shooting for the $1,000,000,000 mark and proving a mecca for northerners who can afford such top-bracket home financing.

One phase of the 20-year project involves the construction of 25 luxury hotels. A spokesman of Coral Ridge, Inc., the developer firm, disclosed today that negotiations are under way with several leading hotel owners with announcement of construction plans considered imminent.

ADDING ONE-THIRD TO Fort Lauderdale's land area with annexation, the four - and - a - half square mile tract was long the last stretch of primitive mangrove and palmetto wilderness along Florida's 75-mile "Gold Coast" between Miami and Palm Beach. Now canals are being dug, land cleared under a long-range program that will cost $4,000,000 and some 30 of the projected 100 roadway miles have been laid.

So strict is zoning in the residential area, where building of a $4,000,00 country club has been started and a $1,000,000 beach club will be ready for the winter season, that even gasoline stations are excluded. To bar speculators, the developers offer what is probably the nation's stiffest terms on home building sites — either all cash or half down and the balance within two years, with all financing of building done by the buyers.

A Fort Lauderdale bank's recent survey of new depositors revealed the new residents are in the income brackets fitting the luxurious "galt mile," as the new development is called. Some 60 per cent of the newcomers derived their income from stocks, bonds or businesses in the north.

Bringing the "galt mile" out of the bush began in October, 1953, when James S. Hunt and Stephen A. Calder, Coral Ridge partners, made the purchase for $19,389,000, the highest price ever paid for a piece of undeveloped land and four times the original cost of all Florida. Owner of the land for 40 years had been Arthur T. Galt, a Chicagoan who cherished the natural beauty.

CORAL RIDGE plotted out the Galt Ocean Mile, a half-mile-wide strip of ocean - front property bounded on one side by the intracoastal highway, and also the 2,466 acres to the north and west.

When fully improved for building, Coral Ridge estimates the land will be worth $100,000,000. Within 20 years, when construction is complete, the total value will be about $1,000,000,000.

Roads and paving will cost $3,500,000, dredging of 20 miles of canals off the intracoastal waterway another $1,000,000. A million square yards of sand have been dredged with 5,000,000 more to go.

Some 8,000 to 10,000 residences will be built. The Southern Bell Telephone Co., whose $2,500,000 building in the center of the growing section is now nearing completion, expects to have 58,000 subscribers in the immediate area by 1965.

Among the projects under way are the Coral Ridge Country Club with an 18-hole course designed by Robert Trent Jones, the $1,250,000 Holy Cross Medical Center, a model shopping center, motels with swimming pools, roadside restaurants and high grade retail outlets.

Woman Stabbed to Death In Bedroom of Her Home

CLEVELAND (AP) — A young mother was stabbed to death in her bed today while her two daughters slept in the next room.

Police said the man who slit her throat apparently also assaulted 24-year-old Mrs. Lois Giles.

The woman's husband, Diamond, a 29-year-old railroad freight receiver, told police he found the body when he returned home after helping repair a friend's automobile.

Detectives said the killer apparently climbed through a window to the first floor bedroom. The children, Beverly, 4, and Diane, 5, slept through the killing.

Lunch Room Renamed For Particular Texan

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Fort Worth, Tex. oil man walked into a luncheon room at the Statler Hotel yesterday but he walked right back out. The place was called "The Dallas Room."

While Ralph H. Cummings and his guests, a dozen California and Texas oilmen, waited hungrily James H. McCabe, vice president of the Statler west coast operations, changed the sign temporarily to "The Fort Worth Room."

It's Dallas again today.

Leader Raps Legion Attack On Girl Scouts

CINCINNATI (UP) — American Legion criticism of the Girl Scouts has drawn the fire of Mrs. Merritt Farrell, a member of the National Board of Girl Scouts.

The Newtown woman said "These criticisms are completely unfounded. Anyone who questions the motives of the Girl Scouts should read the Girl Scouts' promise."

The Illinois American Legion voted last Friday to withdraw support of the Girl Scouts after a stormy 90 minutes of debate.

The Legion charged, "The 1950 handbook of the Girl Scouts gives United Nations and one world citizenship precedence over American citizenship."

Mrs. Farrell said the handbook tried to explain the U.N. because "This country is a member of the U.N. and the Girl Scouts adhere to the country's policy in this as in everything else."

The Legion also charged the writings of certain pro-Communist authors "have been recommended in the Girl Scouts magazine."

Mrs. Farrell lashed out at the charge that the magazine, Leader, contained articles by controversial authors. She said, "All works are carefully screened, but it is difficult to keep up with all the people who have been named at various times."

She said, "We do not believe in this kind of thing where someone speaks his thoughts and is immediately branded."

Meet To Seal Broken Ranks

Christian Churches Feel Need of Unity

Fourth of a Series

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — The churches are making an historic bid for Christian power in the world.

Against a tide of hostile, man made doctrines, they're summoning their far-flung flocks to united defense. They're seeking to combine their strength to make their faith a firmer help to troubled men and nations.

"The Christian faith today," said the Rev. Canon Theodore O. Wedel of Washington, president of the Episcopal House of Deputies, "is involved in a war against gigantic rivals."

To meet that challenge and try to seal the broken ranks of Christianity, churchmen from many lands are gathering here, for a two-week assembly of the World Council of Churches. It opens Sunday.

THE MEETING comes at a most difficult and tragic moment in the world's life, and particularly critical moment in the life of the churches," said Dr. W. A. Visser't Hooft, the council's general secretary.

One of the big issues at stake is what means the varied churches can find for mutual action on the world scene. Said the council's American administrator, Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert:

"In order for the churches to be heard effectively against the rival faiths that today are bidding for the loyalty of people, they must have a united voice beyond anything that has ever existed before."

There will be 161 denominations — Orthodox, Protestant, Old Catholic and Anglican — represented at the meeting. Many have had little contact until recent years, often viewing one another as competitors.

But the emergence of hard-hitting secular faiths — scientific humanism, communism, fascism and other "isms" that promised material bliss without spiritually grounded justice — served to rally churches to joint resistance.

"IT IS THE RISE of the totalitarian state that is the real crisis of Christian churches and civilization of our times," said Dr. G. K. A. Bell, Britain's bishop of Chichester and chairman of the council's central committee, adding:

The issue is whether the churches will wake up and stand together for spiritual authority against the purely secular, totalitarian and materialist state."

To a large extent, the power that the churches can deliver in world affairs depends on the amount of unity among the churches themselves.

"They have been under the heavy handicap of being in a fragmentary condition in an increasingly unified world," said Lutheran leader Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, vice chairman of the council's central committee.

"They have lived in comparative isolation since the Reformation, and in the case of the Orthodox churches, since the 11th Century. But the critical condition of the times has summoned them together with a sense of urgency.

The church's role in dealing with social evils that blight many peoples and threaten others stands as a major motivating force in the churches' new drive for greater leadership.

THE AIM, however, is not "to build a "political power center," said Dr. Visser't Hooft, but a "spiritual power center."

"The church is expected to stand for man, for his dignity, for human solidarity, for a decent human life on this planet," he said. "What the churches do may well spell the difference between anarchy and redemption all over the world."

In this task, Bishop Bell said the church's effectiveness has been "seriously impeded by divisions within it."

"The world doesn't pay much attention to one church when it makes a noise," he said. "But it pays a good deal of attention when many of them make a noise."

The outcome of the Assembly is clothed in uncertainties and potential troublespots and controversies, but it also holds the framework for major potentialities in the power of the churches. Says the weekly Christian Century:

"We are intrigued with the idea that something tremendous may happen at Evanston — something that would set the world on fire with a blaze which will still be hot 10 years from now! It could happen."

Religious Film Set For Tent Services

Arrangements have been completed for the showing here of the Billy Graham religious film, "Mr. Texas," tomorrow night at the tent service at Garfield Park sponsored by the Maranatha Bible Church.

This picture called the "world's first Christian western," will be presented at 7:45. First major production of Billy Graham Evangelistic Films, Inc., it features the young evangelist and his team with leading roles in the story taken by Redd Harper and Cindy Walker, professional show people who recently made their decision to give full time to Christian work. It is a color film.

Produced as an experiment, it surprised religious leaders and moving picture people by drawing record crowds to fill the Hollywood Bowl at its preview in 1951 and continuing to bring in large numbers wherever booked.

Narrative woven in the scenes is the account of the Billy Graham crusade in Will Rogers Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas. Included are shots of rodeo acting with champion riders, and music of a cowboy band. Original music was composed by the two leading players. There will be no admission charge. The nightly evangelistic services are under direction of Rev. Earl L. Holliday of the Maranatha Church. Other films of similar nature are scheduled for their Saturday nights of the campaign, continuing through Sept. 6.

House Bill Puts Limit On Dental Care for Vets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed and sent to the Senate today a bill limiting dental care for veterans to cases directly associated with service-connected disabilities.

The question of unrestricted dental care long has been debated in Congress and previous limitations have been voted through riders on appropriations bills.

In general, the measure provides that dental care can be given only in cases where it is directly related to service-connected disabilities and when application has been made within one year of discharge. This care also is limited to a one-time and not continuing treatment.

Exempted are Spanish-American War veterans, former prisoners of war and cases where the dental need is due to combat wounds.

Voting for the Record

This week, the end of the legislative trail is finally in sight for the 83rd Congress.

During the closing days, a congressman may vote for the record without being overly conspicuous about it. There were some senators who voted for the record when they opposed flexible support prices for farm commodities. There were some representatives who voted for the record when they were for giving a pay hike to half a million postal workers without doing the same for other government employes and without providing the wherewithal to meet the raise. In due time, these congressmen will direct the attention of their constituents to some of these votes, with a view to winning their gratitude at the polls, even though they wasted their votes.

It is all part of the great game played with politics — a game so vital to government that it should be understood more clearly than it usually is understood.

Representative democracy is a system of pressures and counter-pressures, in which Congress serves as a gauge to show what is happening. As often as not, a congressional vote on a public issue is scarcely more than a confirmation of a decision already made inevitable by force of circumstances. But politics being what it is—the art of managing public affairs to achieve a desired effect — politicians still go through the motions of being against something that already has won, or of being for something that already has lost.

It is something to watch for in the closing hours of a session of Congress. The legislative ball is over, but the melody lingers on.

America Sound at the Core

Herbert Hoover told his audience of well-wishers in Iowa last Tuesday that the rank and file of Americans are immune to the misuse of political power that leads to Communism. The danger, he said, comes only from "fuzzy-minded intellectuals and labor leaders."

It could be wished that the kind of commission the former president had confidence in when he was in the White House and the kind he now heads to study reorganization of the federal executive department might study the problem summed up in this observation. Why is there a kind of intellectual and a kind of labor leader whose aim seems to be the creation of despotism in this free country? Why do they betray the rank and file of Americans?

Their preoccupation with this frightening goal has put intellectuals as a group and labor leaders as a group under a cloud. It has been the source of bitterness in public discussion and confusion in public decisions. It has handicapped the labor movement and penalized forward thinkers who have tried to give America the benefit of a native intellectualism that would serve freedom, not betray it.

Worst of all, it has given unwarranted strength to reactionaries who exploit public disapproval of the misguided intellectuals and labor leaders. The United States has as much to lose from extremists of the right as from extremists of the left. Both would lead its people into despotism.

When Mr. Hoover, now 80, has finished his monumental task of reorganizing the executive branch of the government, perhaps he may have a few years to give to the study of "progressivism" that would move backward instead of forward.

Diplomatic Gamble

If you are a garden-variety American with the usual misgivings about America's allies, the visit to Moscow and Peiping by a group of British Laborites has raised your blood pressure. It looks to you like a gesture of cynical contempt for American ideas—a kick in the teeth for Anglo-American understanding.

You can be sure that if a group of Americans belonging to the minority party staged such a junket they wouldn't need to take the trouble to come back home; their political careers would be ruined. But there are some differences between the United States and Britain in a matter of this kind that should be noted.

In Britain, with a parliamentary system of government, the members of the minority party do not share responsibility for public policy unless they are part of a coalition cabinet. The Labor party in this instance is on its own. Moreover, it is split over the issue of "co-existence" inside its low ranks.

The Labor faction represented by the junket to Moscow and Peiping is gambling on the same possibility that has intrigued Prime Minister Churchill and has interested even President Eisenhower—the possibility that Red China might be moved by diplomatic magic into a position half way between the Soviet Union and the western bloc and thereby become a massive element in an international balance of power.

If the Labor party junket fails, little will have been lost. If it achieves even moderate success, on the other hand, it can claim a stroke of genius in behalf of Britain's diplomatic prestige. Your rising blood pressure should not blind you to the fact that diplomacy is not a monopoly controlled by Secretary Dulles and the U.S. State Department.

First Allegiance

By David Lawrence

Honest Employe Puts Country Ahead of Individual

"Lynch law" and rule by the mob have been justly condemned in America as hardly a substitute for the right of every man to a full hearing on any charges made against him. But 12 United States senators recently were ready to "lynch" a fellow senator, figuratively speaking, by voting to declare him guilty without giving him his day in court. Seventy-five other senators decided to grant a hearing before passing judgment.

The records of this debate in the Senate shows how easily passion and emotion can result in "lynch law." It is significant because the idea of voting on the charges against Sen. McCarthy without a hearing came almost entirely from senators who have called themselves "liberals."

One of the principal charges made by the so-called "liberals" against the Wisconsin senator is that he publicly asked federal employes to give him information and urged them "to violate their oaths."

THIS HAS BEEN proved now to be a vague charge, because it isn't clear just what law could be violated if the purpose in giving the data to members of Congress is to expose crime.

Perhaps the best evidence available on the subject comes from those senators who have actually dealt with precisely the same situation — the habit among executive departments of ordering certain information withheld from Congress by calling it "secret."

Here is what Hugo Black, once chairman of a Senate Investigating Committee, wrote in Harper's Magazine in 1936:

"In the munitions investigation something new was tried. A munitions manufacturer said its correspondence in many cases referred to government munitions business and that this was confidential to the government. It produced its papers under compulsion, but all over every document was 'confidential by order of the War Department.' Needless to say, the committee paid no attention to this stamp."

Black is today an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Should he, as a senator, have been "censured" in 1936 for upholding the practice of investigating committees?

Also, the newspapers have been reporting on the trials and convictions of several collectors of internal revenue throughout the country, and the other day a former commissioner of internal revenue, Joseph Nunan, was sentenced to jail for wrongdoing while in office.

SEN. WILLIAMS has been a one-man investigating unit in exposing the crimes committed in the Bureau of Internal Revenue under Democratic administrations.

Repeatedly he met roadblocks. He was refused information but he got it nevertheless because various employes of the internal Revenue Bureau helped him. If what the so-called "liberal" senators are advocating today becomes the rule and executive employes cannot give anything to members of Congress, treason as well as corruption can be covered up.

Sen. Williams told the story of the cover-up in a copyrighted interview in U. S. News World Report on December 7, 1951, when he said:

"I made my speech on the floor of the Senate that day, numbered the files, and put the whole case of Mr. Finnegan in the 'Congressional Record.' And I made the statement then that all the evidence that I was putting into the 'Record' on that date was in the files of the Treasury and the Department of Justice in Washington, that it had been in their files during the time the first grand jury was in session, and that it was not presented to the first grand jury nor to the second grand jury thus far. I said that both the Department of Justice and the Treasury Department were responsible for withholding it."

The interview then continued:

"Q. When you made your speech, didn't you have in your hand the report of the Revenue Bureau's own intelligence unit?

"A. Yes, I had a reproduction of the files.

"Q. Isn't it a violation of some law for that information to get into the hands of a senator?

"A. I don't know if it is or not. I'm not a lawyer. I had it and used it. I have always been told it is a crime to conceal a crime. When I got this information that there was a crime being committed, I had thought that I would be part of the crime if I didn't expose it, and so I exposed it. Had I not done so, it would still be covered up."

-:-

THE DATE in question led later to the indictment of Collector Finnegan of St. Louis for misconduct in office. He was convicted and is now serving a two-year prison term. Sen. Williams continued:

"I tried to call it to the attention of the commissioner of internal revenue, but I couldn't get his interest aroused. I tried to call it to the attention of the secretary of the treasury so that he could take appropriate steps, but I couldn't get his interest aroused. So I called it to the attention of the Senate."

Should Sen. Williams be "censured" now? And what of the work done by Rep. King, and his associates on the House committee who investigated and brought to book persons in the Internal Revenue service so high up that no employe under them would have dared to confront them with charges?

It is widely known that honest employes inside the government gave information and secretly helped these members of Congress.

Should they be "censured" and accused of law violations? That's the rule which the so-called "liberal" senators now would enforce against Sen. McCarthy merely because he repeated in a public address what is well known — that government employes can and must help to uncover treason and corruption and other forms of wrongdoing even if they risk the disfavor of their superiors.

In Praise of Weeds

By TRUMAN TWILL

Nearing the end of another summer's battle with weeds, I feel compelled to say something in favor of my worthy opponents.

They have been as thirsty this dry summer as the pampered plants that have withered and given up. They have withstood assaults with hoes, cultivators and blunt instruments. And they are still doing fine.

I was admiring some of them this morning, especially that old favorite, the ragweed. Without a friend in the world and in the face of organized adversity, the ragweed is flourishing like sin five miles from an army camp.

The next best weed on the place is the thistle. There are several varieties of thistles, but the one that compels an honest man's admiration grows flat on the ground, thus defying adversity.

Even the perpendicular thistle has nothing to apologize for because it can be cut off innumerable times and will rise again to nod its pretty flowered head and flit with everything within a range of half a mile.

The sour dock is another weed that cannot be shrugged off as an ordinary nuisance, although sour dock has a weakness which ultimately may be its undoing. It cannot stand to be beaten with a stick. After each attack its comback is slower and weaker. In five years, a diligent fellow can beat a sour dock to death.

Queen Anne's lace, or wild carrot, on the other hand, thrives on assault. It is the harlot of the vegetable kingdom and will move in and take over without an invitation whenever the gardener relaxes the vigilance which is the price of his freedom from pests.

When the last thermonuclear explosion in the last skirmish of the last battle of the last war has occurred and there is nothing left of the earth but a cinder, the first resurgence of the tide of life will be a trillion wild carrots popping up simultaneously.

They will be joined soon afterward by a thousand square miles of purslane, bind weed and a special weed that grows at the Twillery. It has no official name but is known locally as that "stuff." Stuff is capable of growing a fool a day, surviving with its roots encased in concrete and sneering at all weed eradication methods known to man.

Nothing is said here about chick weed, ivy, dandelions and black plantain, which are only ordinary weeds. They cannot compare in hardiness with ragweed, besides being harmless as far as any effect on the nose, eyes and skin is concerned. They are mere lawn weeds and should not be mentioned in the same breath with field weeds.

Without the latter there would be nothing green and growing. They have withstood the worst that adversity could throw at them and have kept smiling. Without any care and without any plan of propagation, except the Master Plan, they thrive and are as fruitful as Asiatics.

I have mowed down millions of thistles, beginning last June. Many have been cut off at the waist four times, yet are continuing to thrive and prosper. In due time, winter will freeze them into limpness. But next April they will be the first thing to turn green. In May and June they will outstrip everything else. If there is another drought in July and August, they will never miss the water.

You have to hand it to the weeds. They have the will to survive and the means for doing it. The only way to upset them off would be to cultivate them, then they'd be sickly and finicky, too, and some dry summer there would be nothing left growing at all.

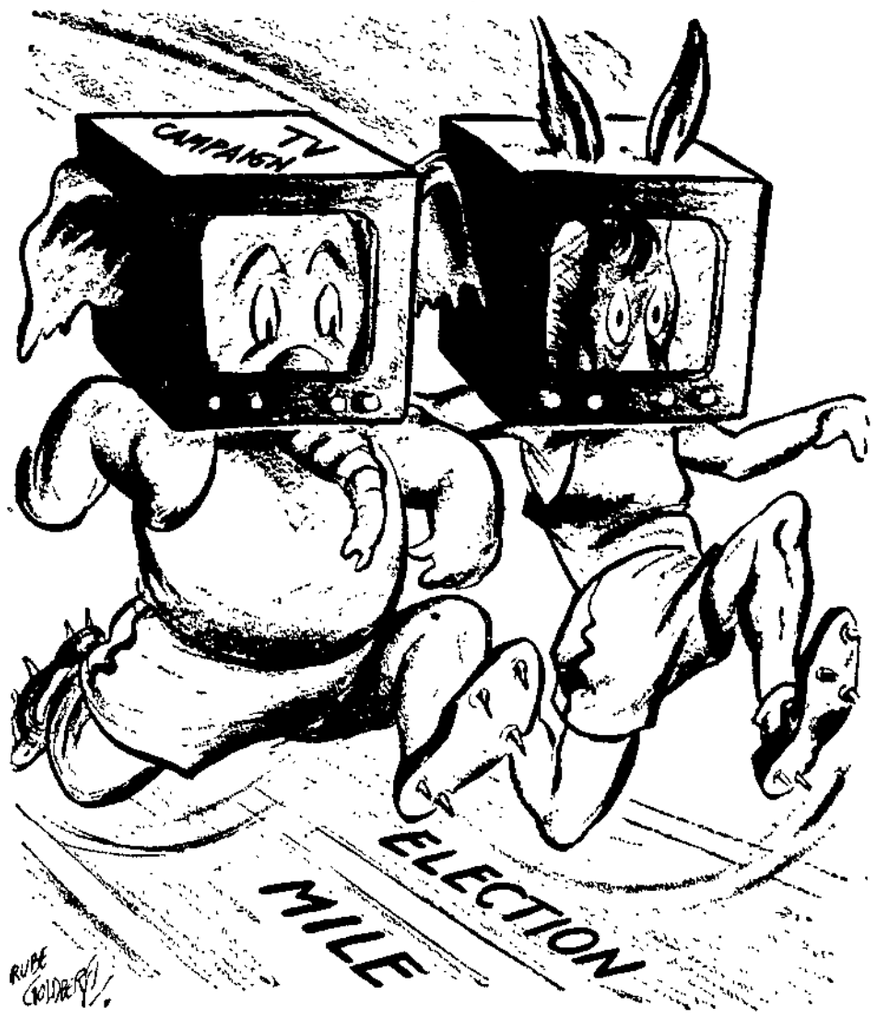
"If God be for us, who can be against us?"—Romans 8:31. If we are supported by infinite power all will be well. We are not friendless.

You just can't beat nature for foresight. If she hadn't known that someday there'd be an FBI. Why did she go to all the trouble of giving us fingerprints?

The Next Big Race



Japan New Weak Spot Against Reds

By Martin S. Hayden

In the stately Japanese embassy on Massachusetts Ave. a worried and bespectacled little economic attache showed a reporter why Japan suddenly has become the new weak spot in the free world's Asiatic line against Communism.

It is the story of an economy broken like a spent bubble by the end of Korean War shooting, and of unemployment that could make Japan Communist, even though the record shows Communist trade would not put the bubble back together again.

Also, it is an answer to two plaintive questions from American isolationists: Why should U.S. tax dollars be funneled continually into foreign aid? And, why shouldn't U.S. tariffs be kept high if that will make more American jobs?

Comparable sets of figures illustrate the problem that resulted in a White House order for all government agencies concerned to concentrate on the Japanese problem:

Statistics from 1934 through 1936, showed that during those three years Japan exported an annual 928 million dollars worth of goods while buying abroad each year an average of 951 million dollars. That 23 million dollar unbalance between sales and what she had to buy to live was a reason given by some for the Japanese military excursion after new markets that led to World War II.

Today, with the dollar value halved by inflation, postwar Japan is selling abroad $1,275,000,000 a year and importing $2,410,000,000. That new unbalance of more than a billion dollars a year is stripping democratic Japan of her reserves and threatening complete economic collapse.

AS A RESULT, Japanese unemployment has quadrupled from 500,000 out of work in 1952 to 2,000,000 unemployed today.

"That figure," said the attache, "would not be serious unemployment in America, but Japan is not America. First, our population is only 96 million and, second, we normally do all sorts of inefficient things that you would never do because we have to make jobs for our people.

"For instance, because we use old-fashioned methods, we employ half our total population in agriculture. They, incidentally, are able to produce only enough food for 80 per cent of our people. By comparison, only 10 per cent of the American people work the farms and produce more than enough to feed your whole population."

The Japanese conceded that part of his nation's trouble springs from an illusory economic recovery during the Korean War.

During the days when Japan was the reception point for new troops headed for Korea and the leave center for men just out of combat, American soldiers spent an annual 200 million dollars in the Japanese economy. On top of that, Japan produced 600 million dollars a year in goods bought by the U.S. taxpayer to support the war.

"Our people," the attache said, "and most people in America, looked at the resultant balance between Japan's income and her purchasing abroad and figured our economic problem was all over. But then the war ended. We learned again that prosperity built on a war economy is not a good one."

THE ATTACHE'S pessimism grows as he views the alternatives for possible solution of his country's malady. First, he says, restored trade with China is not the answer.

"Before the war," he said, "we sold China 20 per cent of our exports and got from her 25 per cent of our imports. For us, it was a fine trade. We got coal, iron and soy beans and gave China nails, hammers, saws, textiles, drugs and other items produced principally by small Japanese factories.

"But that was all built on a favored Japanese position that Red China has no intention of re-establishing. Her recent trade offers suggested that we send, not consumer goods, but things for heavy industry, like generators and locomotives. In return, she proposed to give us coal and iron at prices no lower than we now pay for the same materials from America. Also, her proposal called for only about 200 million dollars in trade, which would not solve our problem."

Southeast Asia is another potential Japanese outlet. But, particularly in the Philippines and Burma, the governments are prefacing trade talks with references to payments Japan cannot make on World War II reparations claims. Also, those countries lack money for toys, cameras and other luxury items that Japan most wants to sell.

THAT LEAVES AMERICA, and again trouble. Lacking a reciprocal trade treaty, Japan's businessmen face high tariffs on tuna fish, screws, oranges, cameras, chinaware and others of their exports.

Most recently, congressional action barring import of Japanese silk scarves on the ground that they were "inflammable goods" just about finished the silk trade that made up half of Japan's sales to the U.S. until war and nylon ruined it.

The answer, says the Japanese attache, is a repetition for Japan of the three-point program that saved Britain: More austerity for the Japanese people, liberalized rules for Japanese exports to the United States, and American aid to Japan's peacetime industries.

He does not say flatly Japan will go Communist next year if that does not happen.

"We can only say," he states, "that when people are out of work they listen without reasoning to the Communist promise of jobs for everyone."

The Long and Short of It

By MARK DANA

In their paradoxical but successful efforts to sell more clothes by selling fewer clothes, some feminine attire manufacturers are getting attention (along with the wearers) by suddenly promoting the kilt and the shortie skirt for college girls, with the assurance that they are straight from Bermuda, whatever that implies.

Not many of the shorties may be seen in the midwest for quite a spell, but this is a promise, or a warning, that almost any day some middle-aged woman who too long has gazed at college girl and pictures will float down the streets wearing a plaid or be-flowered skirt that barely comes to here although, figuratively, she'd better have clung to something less clinging—not slacks or blue jeans, of course.

Meanwhile, it is warily noted that men's garb makers are pressing Bermuda and other shorts on the market, arguing with much logic their coolness and convenience and absence of knee-bagging. Likely as not, the very - shaped men who shouldn't be seen in public save in a bathrobe will shortly start parading in above-the-knees pants, and men and women more kindly endowed by nature who see them will be frightened away from the innovatiins.

That is a distressing angle about new styles, male and female; seems the wrong people get into them. Yet one's sense of logic rises up and concedes that a kilt-length skirt would look cute as the dickens on some maidens, and African-bush shorts have a coolness and escapist appeal to men doomed since the silk-breeched Elizabethan era to swelter and swish in longies as if masculine knees, ipso facto and ex officio and E Pluribus Unumn and automatically, were non-beautiful. It's just a matter of viewpoint, of course.

"If there were only," wishes a friend who farms, "some market value for grasshoppers to make the crop fail."

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Here We Go Again

The Senate "To-Censure-or-Not-to-Censure" Committee is now huddling and the first order of business is to find out why it has to happen to them. Other matters to be handled in the order named are:

1—Can we sue Nixon?

2—As soon as we decide whether to censure McCarthy shouldn't we decide about censuring Flanders?

3—Why weren't we warned?

4—No matter what we decide, will we ever live it down?

5—If U.S. senators ever take to censuring senators is there not a possibility that Washington will close up as a center of government and open as the foremost rodeo center on earth?

6—Who investigates us?

Other items to be studied by the six most deeply-pained senators in Washington will include a study of the question "Did we fall or were we pushed?" and the delicate matter of which has the right of way when an east westbound investigating committee runs into a north or southbound investigating committee. (The question of what to do with investigating committees is an angle that will be deferred if possible.)

There will be recesses every hour in order to permit the six senators to adjourne to an anteroom and sing, "Why did they pick on us?" An early decision is threatened but we are betting the verdict will be delayed on account of late autumn frosts and delayed election returns.

In our book the vote of the Senate for this inquiry was really a vote for Safety First Movements, Caution Lights ad Stop, Look and Listen signs.

The committee of six shows it, although they themselves are not the artful dodger type and are resolute and fearless. At the same time they must realize that there is no law requiring any elective official to stick his neck out beyond the call of duty.

The committee will not permit television. It could only have secured billing as a summer replacement anyhow. Another drawback to video is that not a member of the group can croon, do rope tricks or show the required ability to ham it up.

An American army officer named Col. John R. Dilly is apparently going into history as one of the bravest military figures of all time, well up there with the fearless heroes who have looked for trouble and defied consequences. He has told women what to wear in summer, something never attempted by Hannibal, Xerxes, Caesar, Napoleon, Grant, Pershing, Eisenhower, Lee or Sgt. York. Dilly pulled a "dilly," but his courage can never again be questioned.

"I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer," takes no more bravery than "Remember, baby, none of that strapless stuff!" . . . "They shall not pass" is no more stirring than "Buttebacks are out, ma'am!" . . . Caesar's "I came, I saw, I conquered" denotes no tougher fiber than "I saw her costume; I told her to put some decent clothes on. I won the argument!"

Foch's famous "My rear is threatened, my wings are in danger, I propose to attack" reflects no more guts than "Listen, gal! You gotta wear more clothes or else!" . . . "Don't shoot until you see the whites of their eyes" may ultimately seem no more courageous than "Shoot her if she don't put them there blue jeans away!"

Robinson Crusoe, childhood favorite for generations, is now in the movies and what a novelty it is to see a picture with no screeching police cars, no detectives, no plug-uglies, no cutie-pies, no court scenes, no Roman gladiators and no character yelling, "Drop that gun!" It's a picture every kid should see, but in viewing it we were always afraid that most any minute Robinson and Friday would break out in, "There's Nothing Like a Dam."

Try Quick Bread With Summer Salads

Caraway Cheese Loaf Is Tasty With Vegetables, Fruits for Lunch

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

A quick bread can do so much to make summer lunches satisfying. Bake the loaf in the cool of the morning; store it in a tightly covered container and you will have it on hand for a number of meals.

When we added cheddar cheese and caraway seed to a quick loaf recently, we found it was superb with a variety of hot-weather, main-dish salads. You can make this loaf two ways; starting from scratch or using a prepared biscuit mix. Prepared either way, the loaf is fine-flavored. Sliced, it is the appealing color of golden sunlight. Undiluted evaporated milk and the cheese help to give it a delicious, moist, substantial texture. Another point in this bread's favor is that it slices beautifully thin, without crumbling, as soon as it is cool.

Some special salads to serve with this Caraway Cheese Loaf? Here are several nominations.

Try it with romaine or watercress (or other greens), cucumber and anchovies or small sardines.

It is delicious, too, with stuffed tomatoes. Cut each tomato into six sections, without separating them at the base; push the wedges gently apart and fill with a salad of egg, chicken, crabmeat, tuna or shrimp. Or use another vegetable such as kernel corn or green peas marinated in French dressing for the stuffing.

We also like the bread with a salad of lettuce, pineapple and mayonnaise mixed with Bahama-type mustard and lemon juice. Or use a mixed salad of seasonal fruits—peaches, pears, blackberries and melon plus oranges.

DELIGHTFUL COMBINATION. This quick loaf is flavored with cheese and caraway seed.

CARAWAY CHEESE BREAD

Ingredients: 2 cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon baking soda, ¾ teaspoon salt, ¼ pound cheddar cheese (grated medium fine), 1 tablespoon caraway seeds, 1 cup evaporated milk (undiluted), 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon butter (melted).

Method: Grease bottom of a loaf pan (about 8½ by 4½ by 2½ inches); line bottom of pan with waxed paper, grease paper and sides of pan. Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt into large mixing bowl. With a long-handled fork stir in grated cheese and caraway seeds until evenly distributed. Stir vinegar into milk. Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add milk-vinegar mixture and beat together lightly; pour into flour mixture; add melted butter. Stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; batter will be lumpy. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 50 minutes, or until tester inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Turn out on rack; strip off paper, cool. Bread may be sliced thin as soon as it is cold.

SPEED-UP CARAWAY CHEESE BREAD

Ingredients: 2 cups biscuit mix, ½ teaspoon baking soda, ¼ pound cheddar cheese (grated medium fine), 1 tablespoon caraway seeds, 1 cup evaporated milk (undiluted), 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 egg, 2 tablespoons butter (melted).

Method: Grease bottom of a loaf pan (about 8½ by 4½ by 2½ inches); line bottom of pan with waxed paper, grease paper and sides of pan. Put biscuit mix, baking soda, grated cheese and caraway seeds into a large mixing bowl; with a long-handled fork stir until cheese and caraway are evenly distributed. Stir vinegar into milk. Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add milk-vinegar mixture and beat together lightly; pour into flour mixture; add melted butter. Stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; batter will be lumpy. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 50 minutes, or until tester inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Turn out on rack; strip off paper, cool. Bread may be sliced thin as soon as it is cold.

Japanese-Style Homes Become Popular in U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — Japanese style houses, with one big room and sliding panels to partition off sleeping quarters, may take over the American scene, says one authority.

Carl F. Boester, housing consultant to the Purdue University Research Foundation, told a recent San Francisco convention of home economists that contemporary architecture must spread throughout the nation because it is cheaper to build and fits modern family living. The Japanese house, an extreme of this type of design, offers the added advantages of little furniture and sliding panels, he explained.

Geneva Man Selected To Head Galion Schools; Await Release

GALION — Not until a superintendent of schools is obtained by the board of education at Geneva, O., will the Galion Board of Education be sure of a superintendent for the Galion schools.

Dwight L. Musselman, 49, now serving as superintendent of the Geneva schools on a three-year contract, is the unanimous choice of the Galion board, it was learned Thursday. He will not be released from the Geneva board until a successor is named there.

The Galion board made its selection of a superintendent at a special meeting Tuesday night but the man's name was withheld until his present board of education released him. President Grant West of the Galion Board of Education in a telephone conversation Thursday night with the board president at Geneva, was assured that Musselman will be released there when and if the Geneva board is able to secure a successor.

Would Succeed Shank

Musselman will succeed Marion E. Shank, whose resignation of July 3 will be effective Sept. 1.

Musselman accepted the Galion board's offer of a three-year contract, expiring July 31, 1957, at $8,400 per year and he accepted the offer providing his Geneva, O., board would release him.

Musselman is a former superintendent of the Mount Gilead schools, having served there from 1939 to 1948. He was born in Iowa, was graduated from Bluffton High School and Bluffton College, played varsity football and basketball in college and has had coaching experience. He received his M. A. degree from Ohio State University where he also has had work toward a doctorate.

Headed Various Schools

His school experience includes principalship at Rising Sun High School and elementary school in Wood County; superintendent at Arlington in Hancock County, superintendent at Mount Gilead, 1939-48; superintendent at Malta-McConnelsville in Morgan County until 1952 when he went to Geneva.

Married, Musselman's wife, Fairy, is an elementary school teacher.

From 1948-50 Musselman was head master of the Columbus Boy Choir. He has experience with school building programs, is a member of the American Association of School Administrators, Ohio Education Association, High School Principals' Association, and Association of Ohio Superintendents.

Ammonia Plant Planned In Toledo-Lima District

CLEVELAND (AP)—Plans to build a 17-million-dollar anhydrous ammonia manufacturing plant somewhere in the Toledo-Lima area has been announced by the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio. Completion is scheduled for late next year.

Some 120 people will be employed in the plant making 300 tons of anhydrous ammonia daily. Major part of the plant's output will be used in agricultural fertilizers, with the remainder going to industry.

Sohio said engineering plans for the plant are almost completed but several plant sites still are being considered.

Pickpocket Fooled

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Raymond V. Hunter came home from New York City with the last laugh on a damyankee crook.

Hunter's pocket was picked in the big city. But all he lost was a big roll of imitation Confederate $100 notes the Charleston Chamber of Commerce is distributing as a good-will stunt.

National Teen-Age Driving Champ To Be Selected Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's going to be a lucky Friday the 13th for one of 51 teen-agers winding up their National Auto Driving Championship here today.

A $1,250 first prize is to be awarded at a banquet tonight as the climax of the third annual teen-age "roadeo" put on by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., and American Trucking Assns., Inc.

Behind the contestants are the tests involving actions. Handling a mechanical driving machine, wheeling their cars through mid-town traffic and a maze of skill tests.

Still to be faced was the written examination involving questions of judgment, not book learning.

The youngsters represent every state and Hawaii, Canada and the District of Columbia.

Mary Lou Crum, 17, of East Palestine, Ohio, the only girl in the field, called yesterday's test a "real obstacle course." She and 50 other teenagers bobbed and weaved through midtown Washington traffic in one phase of the contest.

Mamie To Do Decorating in Dream House

WASHINGTON (UP) — Mamie Eisenhower, an amateur decorator with a professional's skill, will use one of her favorite color combinations—pink and green—in the "dream house" at Gettysburg, Pa.

The walls of her bedroom, on the southeast corner of the second floor, will be green. Drapes and slipcovers will be pink. But otherwise, the First Lady, who is doing her own decorating, is undecided on interior plans for the rest of the 189-year-old farmhouse which she and the President are renovating.

The green-and-pink combination has appeared in Mrs. Eisenhower's bedroom in every house in which they have lived for years, including the White House, their 18th century chateau outside Paris and at 60 Morningside Drive, New York.

Mrs. Eisenhower will make sure the painters mix the correct colors. She now keeps handy a post-card size color chart, showing the proper shades.

It looks now as if Mrs. Eisenhower won't start on the interior until after she and the President return from their Denver vacation.

She is keeping her October calendar as open as a First Lady can, hoping to spend most of the month at the farmhouse, directing the unpacking of the family treasures and choosing paint colors, materials.

"I guess I don't have much imagination," Mrs. Eisenhower said, as she explained that her decision on color schemes will have to wait until the house is almost completed.

In the 20-by-40 foot living room, for instance: "I won't know whether I want light or dark walls until the plaster's on."

In that long, light living room, incidentally, is one of Mrs. Eisenhower's "musts" for a house—a bay window.

"We used to call them bow windows back in Denver," she laughed.

There are seven bedrooms, including one off the President's ground-floor study, a studio "with a good north light" on the third floor, and a family sitting room on the second floor.

Mrs. Eisenhower's chief decorating talent is making a house warm and livable. Always there are family portraits—from snapshots to crayon pictures; a cherished few of Mr. Eisenhower's own oil paintings and mementoes from Army and public life.

Always, too, there is room for a favorite framed poem. But this Home.

Mrs. Eisenhower does not stop with interior design. She is planning a broad semi-circular drive as an appropriate front approach for the farmhouse — and a terraced garden in the rear with easy access to an outdoor grill where her husband can broil steaks.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices moved irregularly today in the stock market, and by early afternoon the list presented a mixed picture.

The market started off in good fashion and then ran into difficulties. It staged a partial recovery, however, and gained back a little of the lost ground.

The pace of trading was right around yesterday's 2,680,000 shares. At the worst, prices were down around 2 points while gains extended to around a point.

Aircrafts showed weakness, but as a group the aircrafts and kindred industries were mixed

Motors did quite well along with the railroads and oils. The steels were mixed as were the utilities

Lower stocks included Fellansbee Steel, Consolidated Natural Gas, Anaconda Copper, Boeing, United Aircraft, and Paramount Pictures.

Higher were Youngstown Sheet & Tube, American Telephone, Atlantic Coast Line, Pacific Western Oil, and General Dynamics.
